...S SURRENDER AT ...ENOA; COMMUNISM ... DROPPED BY RUSSIA

BY GEORGE SELDES
[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

...OA, April 10.—In the greatest conference of Euro... in history, to quote Prime Minister Lloyd George, ... took the leading part. The role fell to them for ... reason—Russia virtually surrendered today. The ... nation came back to the fold. Communism was left ... a worn-out coat. Russia stepped out of it and into ... conventional capitalist society clothes it has fought ... years almost to a day.

Hisses greeted the Russian delegation—cheers marked the conclusion of Foreign Minister Tchitcherin's speech. Lloyd George applauded and M. Barthou sat astounded while the speaker's colleagues, Litvinoff, Krassin, Joffe and Rakowsky, who, with Lenin and Trotzky, direct ill-fated Russia, sat morose and silent watching the Bolshevik idea crash in pieces in the face of Europe's greatest gathering of statesmen.

ACCEPT CONDITIONS

"We accept all the conditions of the conference at Cannes, asking only minor changes," said Tchitcherin, and if his acceptance is real and is carried out, it marks the final turn of Bolshevik Russia from absolute Communism. The general opinion among the assembled diplomats at St. George's palace is that all that will be left of Communism will be a mild state of Socialism, which will not interfere with international intercourse.

Despite their surrender, the Russians succeeded in throwing the first bomb in the conference. It was over the question of disarmament, which M. Tchitcherin favored.

After making speeches in French and repeating it in English from the Russian original Tchitcherin suddenly, impromptu, declared for European disarmament. Immediately Barthou angrily interrupted by declaring "disarmament is not listed in the subjects to be discussed by the conference, and France insists that the question is not to be mentioned."

EXCITED DEBATE

Barthou and Tchitcherin engaged in an excited debate while the conference, which was gradually thinning, became an uproar. In the midst of this, Lloyd George rose up, declaring:

"Gentlemen, we have agreed not to discuss disarmament and therefore our French colleague is right, but we must not waste our time in argument. We must get on. Nevertheless, in my opinion, the conference will naturally result in disarmament."

Tchitcherin, who urged the point because Briand brought up the question in Washington, seated himself reluctantly. The commotion subsided, the conference realizing that the first meeting had already brought dissension on one of the great points which the entente refuses to discuss.

That Nickolai Lenin has arrived in Genoa incognito and is prepared to spring a great surprise in the conference when the outlook is rotten for Russia is voiced by many, including the station guards, who declare that Lenin followed the Russian delegation by two days. The Russian headquarters do not deny the possibility of Lenin coming to the conference, inasmuch as it is declared that he has completely recovered his health. The delegation is depressed over the outlook and believe that Lenin will save the situation by a dramatic appearance and personally address the conference. The Russians are angry

As a matter of fact there is a strong belief in administration circles that a settlement of the Russia problem and an acquiescence by the soviet government in the principles laid down by Lloyd George will result in the complete success of the Genoa conference.

KEY TO SITUATION

There is a belief amounting to a conviction that once this problem is settled it will be comparatively easy to adjust others and thereby remove the causes of unsettled conditions in Europe.

Once Russia is set on a productive basis and ceases her warlike activities not only will the excuse of other European nations for maintaining large armies have vanished but also ordinary sources of trade will begin to be restored and commence will be revived.

EXPENSES OF STATE ARE HIGH

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—State expenditures exceeded receipts during the past month by nearly $3,000,000, according to Treasurer Richardson. Receipts were $5,081,025.83 and expenditures $7,874,062.15. Among the larger items of expenditures were:

General fund, salaries etc	$1,783,000
Motor vehicle	475,000
Compensating insurance	425,000
High school	1,660,000
Second highway	74,000
Third highway	688,000
Land settlement	319,000
San Francisco Harbor	164,000
School fund	1,544,000
University	219,000

ECONOMY NEEDED

Commenting upon the statement Richardson said: "Growing State expenditures is something that should alarm every good citizen and taxpayer. There is need for retrenchment in most of the State departments. The sophistry of constructive expenditures will not fool anyone. Constructive items, so called, may, and in many cases do, cloak extravagance. The highway, the school, the harbor and other departments should be run efficiently and economically. Because they are constructive is no warrant for them to be extravagant.

"The State government needs a cutting out of unnecessary positions and a cleaning out of a few hundred political henchmen who serve the machine rather than the State. The 476 State pleasure automobiles may be constructive, but they are run at the State's expense, and many of them are being used for political purposes by State politicians seeking only the perpetuation of the political machine. Strict economy is needed to relieve the people from the great burden of taxation. This burden falls upon all classes."

TO RESTORE MOUNTED TO OLD DUTIES

Northwest Police Soon to Regain Its Distinctive Identity

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) April 10.—There is a possibility that the old Northwest Mounted Police, which lost its distinctive identity two years ago when it was merged with the Dominion police under the name, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, may be restored to its old status, with all its efforts confined to police work in unorganized territories of Canada.

This was indicated in the House of Commons today when Prime Minister MacKenzie King told the House that many of his followers were of the opinion that the action of the late government in submerging the identity of the famous plainsmen was wrong and the present government was considering the suggestion that the old forces be restored.

The occasion was the debate on a motion brought by a Labor member to "confine the activities of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to unorganized territories in Canada." The motion was defeated, 108 to 46, the government party and the Conservative opposition, including former Premier Arthur Meighap, voting against it.

MRS. PAT CAMPBELL'S AMAZING LETTERS ABOUT AFFAIRS WITH FAMOUS MEN SOON IN "TIMES"

A startling narrative, the confessional autobiography of Mrs. Pat Campbell, the famous English beauty, laying bare the outstanding events of her private and professional career, will be published in The Times beginning next Sunday, April 16. It is the foremost literary event of the year and promises to be the sensation of two continents.

Not only for the frank revelations of her many love affairs and letters from such admirers as Bernard Shaw, Sir James Barrie, Lord Cornwallis West and others, but for her keen comment on famous Americans and on American social life, as well, is the autobiography notable.

"LITTLE NAVY" GROUP IS PUT ON DEFENSIVE; RANKS ARE WAVERING

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The battle between the Harding administration and the "little navy" Congressmen who are seeking to reduce the personnel of the Navy to 67,000 men began in the House today. So vigorous and aggressive became the opposition to the appropriation bill, which proposes to allow the American Navy fewer men than the Japanese navy, that the "little navy" group found itself on the defensive from the start and threatened with repudiation by the House.

Under a terrific bombardment of facts and figures showing that the measure would well-nigh destroy American sea power, the "little navy" ranks began to waver. Representative Padgett, Democrat, Tennessee, former chairman of the Naval Committee, rallied many Democrats to the administration's standard with a vigorous speech in which he charged that the measure not only would render the American Navy greatly inferior to the British navy, but would also reduce it to a bare equality with that of Japan. Representative Tinkham, Republican, Massachusetts, branded the bill as "a product of a pacifist propaganda."

MORE AMMUNITION

The opposition has still more ammunition to fire tomorrow. Secretary of State Hughes, as chairman of the Washington Conference on the Limitation of Armaments, has written a letter to Representative Rogers, Republican, Massachusetts, appealing to the House to support the administration's Navy recommendations and urging it to refrain from action which would jeopardize America's standing in the 5-5-3 ratio. Rogers plans to read this letter to the House tomorrow in answer to the "little navy" leaders, who contend that the provisions of the bill do not conflict with the terms of the 5-5-3 program.

Canvass of the House by administration leaders led them to predict today that they would be able to muster enough votes to overthrow the "little navy" committee's recommendations by a majority of about fifty. They are confident they will have sufficient strength to force the adoption of an amendment providing about 80,000 men in place of the 67,000 recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

BEGINNING TO SPLIT

The entire New England delegation, regardless of party, is lined up against the measure. Most of the delegations from the Atlantic seaboard States also are opposed to it. A large proportion of the Democrats from the South Atlantic and some from the Gulf States have joined the opposition. The Pacific Coast delegations are solidly against it. Even the middle western delegations, which form

Chicago Bombers Busy

CHICAGO, April 10.—Four bombs were exploded in Chicago tonight in a space of half an hour. The first wrecked a plumbing contractor's home and seriously injured him. The second devastated the interior of the "Church" of Joseph Abbate, self-styled "reincarnated God." The third crashed in the front of an Italian grocery—probably Black Hand. The fourth smashed windows in a steam heating contractor's residence on the far South Side. In the first and last cases police believe unions fighting the Landis labor award were responsible.

"FIFI" HAS GOOD DAY IN COURT

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MONTREAL, April 10.—Testimony at the reopening of the defense in the Stillman divorce case here today dealt a blow to the "peeper" stories told against Mrs. Anne U. Stillman in support of the charges James A. Stillman, former head of the National City Bank of New York that she had been guilty of misconduct with Fred K. Beauvais, Indian guide, at Grand Anse.

Witnesses in secret sessions before Commissioner Godin testified that the scaffolding outside the Grand Anse house, from which it had been testified Beauvais was seen with Mrs. Stillman, had been removed before Mrs. Stillman arrived.

SISTER IS CALLED

Margaret Stacy, sister of Fred Beauvais, was the first witness. She was called during the preliminary arguments, and stood, smiling, with her hand on the railing of the witness box while attorneys for both sides argued as to whether the hearings should be open.

Napoleon K. Laflamme, for Stillman, demanded that the hearings be held "in camera." Aimee Geoffroon, Canadian attorney for Mrs. Stillman, agreed in the demand, and a half hour's argument with Commissioner Godin convinced him secret hearings were advisable.

Fred's sister swore that she had been chambermaid at Mrs. Stillman's estate, Grand Anse, during most of the time involved in the charges of infidelity. During this time, Miss Stacy said, she made Mrs. Stillman's bed, and also that of Fred Beauvais, the co-respondent. Both beds were always slept in, she said, and there was, to her, no evidence of misconduct.

NEVER WAS ALONE

She also declared that in her many months of service at Grand Anse she had never known Mrs. Stillman to go into the woods alone with her Indian guide, but that on all occasions she was accompanied by her son, Bud, her daughter, Anne, or other members of the family.

Miss Stacy was severely cross-examined by Laflamme, prompted by Col. William Rand, the cross-examining genius of the previous Stillman hearings. With an unceasing smile and a determined resourcefulness, the Indian girl stood up under the ordeal so well that both sides considered her the best witness of the day.

Miss Stacy's testimony that her brother did "just general housework in the Stillman household" caused a ripple of merriment in the courtroom with its complement of New York lawyers.

"He cleaned up and fixed fires," she explained.

HALF-BREED CALLED

Six witnesses besides Miss Stacy testified. The most important of these, from the point of view of Mrs. Stillman's defense, was Georges Giguere, a half-breed Indian trapper and guide, who testified that J. Albert Lafontaine, agent for Stillman, asked him to go to New York and swear that he had been intimate with Mrs. Stillman.

Giguere, according to his story, refused indignantly, and Lafontaine then asked him to swear that he had seen Beauvais with Mrs. Stillman. Again Giguere refused. Both these bits of projected testimony against "Madame" were to be rewarded by gifts, good times and trips to New York with plenty of money, Georges told the court.

To clinch the bargain, Lafontaine tried to get the young guide drunk, the latter testified. The efforts of the agent were in vain, Georges said. Giguere's story stood up consistently under an hour of cross-examination.

FRANCE AROUSED; UNEASINESS FELT ALONG THE RHINE

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, April 10.—The fast-moving series of events within the last twenty-four hours has brought European affairs to a stage electrically charged with high potentialities. There is uneasiness tonight on the Rhine and there is reason for it. In diplomatic circles one hears again whispers about troop movements, occupations and forced payments.

The popular feeling in Paris is far from calm. French blood has been spilled and French indignation is increasing as its patience decreases.

The ingredients of this situation, which is pregnant with menace, follow:

First—Germany has refused to pay its reparations bill, has refused to increase its taxes and has refused to submit to financial control as demanded by the Allies.

Second—Eleven French soldiers have been killed and ten wounded in a mysterious explosion of buried ammunition in Gleiwitz, Upper Silesia.

Third—Russia has exceeded in injection the disarmament question before the Genoa conference over French opposition.

Fourth—Feeling is growing in Paris over Germany's refusal to pay the reparations and its intention to force the question before the Genoa conference.

GOV. SMALL INTERESTS UNCLE SAM

Investigation Started of Income Tax Return Filed by Executive

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, April 10.—An investigation by Federal government agents of the income tax returns made by Gov. Small, Vernon Curtis, a banker, and Fred Sterling, former State Treasurer, all of whom are facing trial on charges of conspiracy in connection with the alleged embezzlement of State funds, has been started, it was reported here tonight.

According to officials of the Internal Revenue Department, an agent has been assigned to investigate and report all information that he may collect. He has been instructed to attend the trial of Gov. Small, which is scheduled to start at Waukegan next week.

The Internal Revenue Bureau became interested, it was reported, shortly after the Sangamon county grand jury returned indictments against Gov. Small in connection with the misappropriation of State funds while he was State Treasurer.

SISTERS ARE HEIRS TO GREAT ESTATE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

STOCKTON, April 10.—Two sisters, Mrs. W. Kales and Mrs. S. Johnson, both of Stockton, received word today from Danish authorities that they are joint heirs of an estate in Australia valued at $3,000,000 through the death of an uncle who sailed from Denmark to Australia as a missionary forty-five years ago.

The holdings which they inherit consist of land, cattle and sheep.

NO APOLOGY NEEDED FOR HARDING ACT

BY GRAFTON S. WILCOX
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—President Harding spoke officially today with regard to his recent dismissal from the service of the director and division superintendents of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, declaring that his sweeping action was necessary to give complete assurance of protection to the government's interests and that he had no apology to make for it.

The President also publicly declared, referring to criticism of his action as bearing on the civil service, that he proposed to maintain "every regard for the Civil service law," but added:

ANSWERS CRITICS

"If a responsible executive head may not take such action as is deemed necessary for the good of the public service, then such an inhibition on the powers of the Executive ought to be made very clear to Congress, to government employees and to the American public, to which all are answerable."

President Harding made his comments on the incident, which still is stirring the capital, in a letter to Luther C. Steward, president, of the National Federation of Federal Employees, who had written a letter protesting against the discharge of the Bureau of Engraving officials. In replying to the President's letter, Mr. Steward and Miss Gertrude McNally, secretary of the women's union of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, accepted an invitation from the President to aid him in securing the highest efficiency in government service but reiterated complaints that the discharged government employees were unfairly dealt with.

FOR GOOD OF SERVICE

The President's letter included these statements:

"The changes made at the bureau were ordered after extended deliberation and were inspired wholly for the good of the service. It was so stated at the time. I do not understand that such a statement or such an action impugns anyone's character or calls for charges against the employees concerned or demands explanation by the Executive.

"The order in this case specifically stated that those of the dismissed employees who were eligible to retirement would be retired as from the date of the order; which I think you will agree is not subject to the construction that their characters were impugned in any way. Miss McNally's letter states that these persons are ineligible to reinstatement in the government service because summarily dismissed on charges . . . and they lose the benefit of the retirement act. This indicates a distinct misunderstanding of the action taken. There were no charges, and there was a distinct assurance that the benefits of the retirement act were preserved.

ACTS FOR PROTECTION

"In the circumstances which were presented to the Executive at the time of taking this action, it seemed apparent to me then, as it does now, that no action less sweeping than was taken, could give complete assurance of the full protection of the government's interests."

In the Senate today Senator Carraway of Arkansas injected some more excitement over the recent discharge of Bureau of Engraving and Printing employees, claiming that at least three of them were former service men. He introduced a resolution calling upon the President to inform the Senate how many honorably discharged ex-service men had been removed from government jobs and calling attention to a Congressional resolution providing that ex-service men should not be dropped from the rolls of any department in the event of reductions in the force. The Arkansas Senator had a lively tiff with other Senators and the Vice-President in attempting to get consideration for his resolution, which was ordered to go over under the rules.

Administration Prepared to Resume Trade Relations if Soviets Will Behave

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Secretary of State Hughes and President Harding have been giving much attention to the Russian question in the last few days and are now agreed that if the policy of Premier Lloyd George toward Russia at Genoa is adopted and made effective, resumption of trade relations between the United States and Russia will follow as soon as Russia has given evidence of a desire to adhere to the Genoa conference decisions.

This attitude on the part of the administration follows a careful and painstaking study of the speech of Lloyd George before the House of Commons, which has resulted in the discovery that his attitude toward Russia is exactly that of this government as formulated by the administration at the outset and as expressed by Secretary Hughes in a cablegram to the Russian government through the American Consul at Reval on March 25, 1921.

REVERSAL OF SENTIMENT

The belief of Lloyd George that there has been a reversal of sentiment in Russia that will make possible the adoption of the program laid down by him is echoed by similar beliefs on the part of the President and Secretary of State Hughes, who recently have received from their agents aboard almost unmistakable proof that the Russian delegation has gone to Genoa determined to ac-

SPIRIT WORLD EXPLAINED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—Certain heretofore "unknown details" of life in the spirit world were given reporters today by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, famous author of mystery stories. It appeared that he must have been consulting his favorite character, Sherlock Holmes, for he was most specific. Here are some of his statements:

"Spirits live on one plane for thirty to forty years, then, if well behaved, they go to a higher plane.

"Suicide is no short cut to the spirit life of happiness. During the suicide's residence in the first spirit plane all the mental states that impelled to self-destruction remain.

SPIRIT MARRIAGES

"There are marriages in the spirit world; every one of them being happy, but producing no children."

After giving these details, and saying that though religion "now is practically gone," it would come back in about fifty years, Sir Arthur declared that science has analyzed the vapor that is produced by mediums when in a trance state. He asserted that this substance is gas-collecting phosphates, carbonates and other chemical matter contained in the normal human body.

He said that some scientists claim to have photographed this substance, and that when it passes from the mediums it assumes a putty-like color. The spirit entering the zone containing this gas becomes visible, he said.

SAW DEAD MOTHER

The British author declared that not only had mediums disclosed his dead son to him, but he had seen his mother, and that every wrinkle was clearly to be seen as he had known them during her life.

The happy plane of the spirit world he designates as "summerland." It is his idea of heaven, and he says everyone is happy there. On the other hand, he says, the grossly material persons who give no thought to the better things of this or any other life go to a place which he designates as "purgatory."

He says reassuringly: "It is no acrobatic feat to go to summerland as the theologians would have us believe. You can hardly help going there."

Sir Arthur declared that large numbers of the clergy of the Church of England and great masses of the English people are becoming spiritualists.

TORNADOES BRING DEATH

Two Fatalities, Several Injured, Extensive Damage in Middle-West Snowstorms and Wind

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, April 10.—Two fatalities, several persons injured and extensive property damage were reported in advices reaching here late last night on the tornadoes and storms that swept through the Middle West today. Western Nebraska, the northern and middle Rocky Mountain region and Kansas were visited by snowstorms and cold weather.

Eight inches of snow was reported in Lander, Wyo., and five inches in Denver. The lowest temperature reported was in Leadville, Colo., where the thermometer registered eight above zero. Freezing temperature which will endanger the Eastern Kansas fruit crops was also reported. Central West Texas experienced the worst sandstorm of the year while Amarillo, Tex., had an hour and a half of snowfall.

Two men were killed by a tornado which struck Ash Grove, Mo., another unroofed an Indiana church. Houses, barns and trees suffered also in Marion county, Indiana, where a wooden bridge over the White River was moved eight feet by the wind. Live stock was killed in the collapse of barns near Freeport, Ill., during a pounding windstorm. In the city windows and small buildings were smashed and 500 telephones put out of commissions. A heavy dash of rain fell in Chicago this afternoon, drenching shoppers and homebound Loop workers.

A southern windstorm, which at its height attained a velocity of forty-two miles an hour, tonight tore the pilot house from the Mississippi River Commission steamer Mississippi and unroofed the government office building at Memphis, Tenn. A number of barges were torn from their moorings and considerable other water-front damage was also odne.

MOLLYCODDLE MEDDLERS CAUSE OF CRIME WAVE

Sympathy for Criminals Denounced by Experts at Meeting in Chicago

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, April 10.—"The prevalence of an abnormal amount of crime in our large cities is the result of years of molly-coddling and sympathy by misinformed and ill-advised meddlers."

In these twenty-six words Edwin W. Sims, president of the Chicago Crime Commission, summed up the situation confronting the United States, as he delivered his views today, the first witness to address the law enforcement committee of the American Bar Association, meeting in the courtroom of one of its members, Judge Marcus Kavanagh. Gathered in the courtroom was the most distinguished company of criminologists, men who handle crime and criminals, that probably has ever been gathered together.

PROHIBIT FIRE ARMS

The courtroom cheered when Judge John W. O'Connor of the appellate court of Chicago advocated a Federal law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of revolvers and pistols. Judge O'Connor gave as his opinion that the law would be held constitutional. Seventy-five per cent of the men haled into criminal court are brought in because they had access to firearms, he said.

Mr. Sims outlined the following points which he believed might help to cope with crime:

"Provide for a bureau of criminal records.

"Increase the penalty in all cases where the person committing the crime is armed with a gun.

"Repeal statutes making juries the judges of the law.

"Prevent the abuse of the habeas corpus writ.

USE OF AUTOMOBILE

"Make the use of an automobile in the commission of crime a separate offense and increase the severity of the punishment.

"Pass a habitual criminal act, providing for the permanent incarceration of persons convicted of three or more crimes.

"Withdraw from trial judges the power to admit to probation.

"Give us a law giving some one authority in the matter of selection and impaneling of juries so that the business man may not be frightened away by the prospect of having to sit on juries."

Mr. Sims was talking straight from the shoulder.

"The judge who tries a criminal case knows whether justice is being done or not, he said.

Mr. Sims plunged into another pungent paragraph—he was reading his statement, and he had spent considerable time preparing it from the experience he has had with fighting crime through the agency of the commission which he heads.

LACK OF CO-OPERATION

"In this respect there is a deplorable lack of co-operation and co-ordination between the agents charged with the apprehension, prosecution and punishment of crime," he said. "This should be remedied at once. There should be no lost motion in our criminal procedure. There is no use trying to avoid the issue. Some one or something in criminal procedure is responsible. The police and the prosecuting officials have limited statutory authority. The courts, on the other hand, are a co-ordinate branch of government charged with the duty of administering justice."

Judge William B. Swaney of Chattanooga presided at the first session of the committee and with him sat Judge Kavanagh, Charles S. Whitman, former Governor of New York; Wade H. Ellis, lawyer and editor of Cincinnati and Washington, and Charles D. Farnum of St. Paul. One meeting of the committee has been held in Washington.

MEET IN JOLIET

Another session is to held in Joliet penitentiary, where the testimony of case-hardened veterans of the prison will be taken, unless the death today of Warden Murphy upsets the schedule. In that event the testimony of criminals will be taken when the committee meets in New York in June and Sing Sing will be visited. The outcome of the inquiry will be a report to be submitted to the annual meeting of the American Bar Association next August in San Francisco.

The report will become the lawyer's manual on the crime situation in the United States, and it is expected the report will be impressed on the administration of justice in the larger American municipalities.

THREE QUESTIONS

Three questions, substantially as follows are being asked the experts who will be testifying in Judge Kavanagh's court, probably until Wednesday night:

How can we better enforce the laws?

What are the reasons for the present criminal conditions in the United States?

What do you suggest as to the remedy?

"Crimes of violence in the large cities," Mr. Sims said further, "will not be reduced to normal until we do away with gunmen. The gunman must go."

KU KLUX KLAN BILL IN ARIZONA HOUSE

NATIONAL GUARD APPROPRIATION, STRICKEN OUT, WILL BE RETURNED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, April 10. — The House this afternoon spent an hour in executive session considering the Matthews Ku Klux Klan bill that was introduced Saturday. In open session there had been opposition of keen sort, with statements that the penalties prescribed are too severe and that present laws amply cover the subject. With some amendment the bill went to engrossment by a vote of only 19 to 16, with four absent.

The appropriation bill is in the Engrossing Committee of the House, expected to emerge tomorrow. The appropriations for the National Guard, stricken out Saturday, are to be reinserted in the Senate if the House does not do so. Favorable action was taken by the House on a bill that seeks to exempt from taxation new industries that might be large employers of labor.

The Senate took favorable action on its bill taxing stage and motor transportation lines, but reduced the rate to 2 per cent of gross income.

the bulk of the "little navy" strength, began to split up.

Representative Kelley, Republican, Michigan, chairman of the subcommittee which framed the Navy bill, led off the debate today with a speech in which he insisted that the measure allowed all the money necessary to maintain the most adequate and efficient navy possible under the terms of the 5-5-3 agreement. He said he had noticed "many beautiful works of fiction" concerning the strength of the British navy, which, he said, would be about 95,000 men, or about the same as that of the American Navy, counting all branches of the service, including the marines. He declared that the Japanese navy notwithstanding the 5-5-3 ratio would be little more than half as strong as the American Navy was in 1916. The "little navy" element gave Kelley a big ovation when he concluded:

PUBLIC WILL KNOW

"When this Congress gets through with this appropriation bill there will not be an intelligent man who follows the public affairs in any nation in the world who will not be able to tell you approximately what the United States is deciding to do in the way of armies and navies. And let me say that I hope that what we decide to do will be an inspiration and a ray of hope to all mankind."

Representative Byrnes, South Carolina, leading Democrat of the naval subcommittee, urged the Democrats to support the bill. It wasn't as small as it was made out to be, he told the House. The Republican book keepings was not as accurate as it ought to be. Instead of $232,000,000 the bill carried nearly $300,000,000 including authorized expenditures. Furthermore, he predicted another measure would be reported shortly to appropriate $60,000,000 to meet expenses growing out of the scrapping of vessels.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, declared tonight that the naval bill as reported by the House Appropriations Committee, gives the United States a "lame-duck Navy," which would destroy America's influence in the world and make the country impotent in future international conferences which he predicted were certain to follow the recent Washington Armament Conference.

"The bill providing for an enlisted personnel of only 67,000 men," Col. Roosevelt asserted, would, if enacted into law, be a national disaster, reducing the United States to the rank of a second-rate country with little influence in the world either for peace or justice.

LAME-DUCK NAVY

"The bill gives us a 'lame-duck' Navy," said Roosevelt, speaking before the National Press Club. "It breaks the naval ratio. It relegates us to a minor position among the great nations.

"It cripples our defense.

"We believe in the limitation of armament. We have demonstrated our belief by our accomplishments. We got this limitation because we had a good Navy. There unquestionably will be further conferences in the future. The 'lame-duck' Navy provided by this bill will destroy our influence in such conference, for who will heed an impotent country?

"The very people who smugly announced the loftiness of our ideals when they advocated such a reduction would by one stroke render these ideals ineffectual.

"We want no more wars, but the millenium has not been reached on earth. Under the treaty a Navy was provided which would guard our defenses. Under the House bill we cannot adequately do so. A strong man wishes the strength to protect himself. A strong nation should do likewise.

"The battleship is the keystone of the naval arch. On the battleships the naval treaty was predicated. We are allowed eighteen battleships by treaty agreement. With the personnel allowed us in this bill, we can keep but thirteen of these battleships in full commission. Five will have to be put in ordinary with only 200 men on board. A battleship in ordinary is not a battleship; it is merely a naval relic."

A hearing on the application of A. M. Cooper to be permitted to establish and operate a motor-bus line which would carry passengers between Santa Monica and Topanga Canyon was heard yesterday before Examiner W. R. Williams of the State Railroad Commission. Residents of Topanga Canyon appeared to support the petitioner. FROST DAMAGE TO APRICOTS HEAVY

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN JOSE, April 10.—E. F. Nicholls, in charge of the United States Weather Bureau here, said today he believed the frost damage in the Santa Clara Valley Saturday was heavy, particularly to apricots, although the cold winter and spring held back growth of buds so the loss was less than it would have been in an ordinary season. As the low temperature began early in the evening many ranchers ran out of fuel for their smudge pots before morning and were unable to protect their orchards completely. Horticultural Commissioner Cody made a trip to the southern end of the valley today to ascertain what damage had at the enormous charges asked by the hotel where they are quartered, one of the most expensive here, saying that the money paid out is costing the lives of 100 famine victims daily.

After paying tribute to Signor Facta's address, Premier Lloyd George in his speech before the conference said:

"This is the greatest gathering of European nations which has ever assembled on this continent, and having regard for the magnitude of the assembly, the character of its representation and the importance of the topics we are here to discuss, the results of the conference will be far-reaching in their efforts either for better or worse, upon the destiny not merely of Europe, but the whole world.

"We meet on equal terms, provided we accept equal conditions. We are not here as allied and enemy states; we are not here as belligerents or neutrals; we have not come together as monarchists or republican or socialists; we are assembled as the representatives of all the nations and peoples of Europe to see out the best methods for restoring the shattered prosperity of this continent. So may each build up in his own land, each in his own way, a better condition of things for the people than the world has yet enjoyed."

POISONED WIFE AT HUSBAND'S FUNERAL

WOMAN WHO ATTEMPTED TO FOLLOW MATE ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN RAFAEL, April 10.—Mrs. Alice Frey, who took poison last Thursday shortly after her husband's death, so that she might follow him, attended his funeral today, placed a red rose on the coffin and appeared the most composed person at the ceremony.

She swallowed a slow-acting poison, which ordinarily causes death in two weeks or less, according to Dr. J. H. Kuser, who attended her, but owing to prompt action at a hospital, Mrs. Frey is said to have a chance for recovery.

Mrs. Frey appeared at the Coroner's office after her husband's death and asked that the funeral be postponed so that she might be buried with him.

CAPTAIN IS BURNED TO DEATH WHILE ATTEMPTING TO RESCUE ENLISTED MAN FROM FLAMES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Capt. Briscoe was formerly an enlisted man of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, but rose to the rank of captain in the Quartermasters' Corps during the war. Afterward he became a lieutenant of Scouts and then was promoted to a captaincy. He was born in Indiana and was 36 years of age. He leaves a widow.

ALIEN PROPERTY ACCOUNTED FOR

Custodian Files Report With the Senate

Claims Against Germany to be Considered

Settlement Will Have Effect on Relations

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—An accounting of the $350,000,000 worth of enemy property held by the government was given the Senate today in a report, the first compiled since February, 1919, filed by Thomas W. Miller, Alien Property Custodian, in response to a resolution by Senator King, Democrat of Utah.

"The final disposition of this property," Mr. Miller said, "will, undoubtedly, have a direct bearing on the economic relations between this country and Europe, with particular reference to the late enemy powers. The sequestered property also will have a bearing on the question of the settlement of American claims against Germany."

AMERICAN CLAIMS

Discussing the $415,000,000 of American claims against Germany, Mr. Miller recalled the terms of the Knox-Porter peace resolution, indicating that no disposition should be made of enemy property held by the United States until the German government had provided for the satisfaction of all American claims. He asserted that Congress must "evolve some plan whereby American claims against Germany may be adjudicated by some proper tribunal created by law.

"There are several classes of claims against Germany," Mr. Miller said, "as for instance, those of Americans, whose cash was seized by the German custodian, and who are now being offered the return of their money at the depreciated value of the mark, which today is valued at one-third of a cent for each mark, or a reduction of 720 per cent from the prewar value. This proposition amounts to practical confiscation on the part of the German government.

"There also are claims on file with the State Department for the loss of property and life at sea, growing out of submarine sinkings previous to April 6, 1917.

TAXES IN GERMANY

"If the Germany property were returned today without any conditions, the tax laws in force in Germany would require German nationals or other people under the jurisdiction of the German government, whose property was returned to them, to give up in taxes to the German government a major portion of the funds returned. One of the taxes assessed is known as the empire need tax, the revenues of which are utilized by the German government for its nationals, and a second tax known as the indemnity tax, the proceeds of which are paid into reparations going to our late Allies.

"It has been suggested that the amount of money which the German government would realize from such taxation might form the basis of a fund to be left in this country, the same to be applied for the satisfaction of claims of American citizens against Germany when these claims are adjudicated."

Answering charges by Senator King that property had been seized since peace was concluded with Germany last July, the report declared that the last property seized was that belonging to Grover C. Bergdoll, which was taken on May 27, 1921.

MARKET CONTINUES ITS UPWARD COURSE

MANY ISSUES ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE REACH NEW HIGH FOR YEAR

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—The new week on the stock exchange opened with a resumption of the past fortnight's extraordinary demand for securities of almost every variety. Many issues exceeded all previous high records of the year in the day's turnover of 1,475,000 shares.

Rails were the more solid features of the session, although the substantial gains in that division were confined to secondary shares. Steels, motors and equipments all yielded occasionally to the weight of realizing sales, and oils eased with sugars, tobaccos and local tractions. United States Steel rose to within a small fraction of par before the close, but reacted a point, with affiliated issues finishing at a nominal advance.

Net gains of one to five points were registered by Gulf States, Bethlehem, Lackawanna and Crucible steels, Baldwin, Studebaker, Stromberg, Pierce-Arrow, Columbia Gas, Electric Storage Battery, Market-Street Railway preferred and Manhattan Elevated.

Call loans were made at 4½ per cent, while time money continued to rule at 4½ to 4¾ per cent. Reported concessions on commercial paper were not confirmed.

WHEAT FAVORED BY WEATHER IN MARCH

PASTURES IN CALIFORNIA REPORTED IN FAIR CONDITION

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, April 10. — Weather conditions during March were not generally unfavorable to the grain crops in California, but with slightly higher temperatures and more sunshine rapid growth would have been made, says the monthly crop estimate made public today by E. C. Kaufman, Federal crop estimator for California.

As a whole pastures were in fair condition, but grass was short, owing to low temperatures, the report says. Low temperature also held back fruit blossoms and generally the blooming period of deciduous fruits is from two to four weeks late.

The condition of wheat on the 1st inst. was 94 per cent of normal compared with 93 per cent April last year. Conditions have been generally favorable for the wheat crop.

JOY PARTY RESULTS IN DEATH

San Diego Officials Hold Companions on Trip to City Across the Border

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—Following the death from poisoning today of Mrs. Gertrude Klauss, who visited Tijuana yesterday with a party of friends, two men and a woman are being held by the police pending an investigation.

Joseph Rogers, Eugene Castro and Mrs. Virginia Alviso, the other members of the party, were taken into custody soon after Mrs. Klauss died. Rogers said he and Castro met the women at Tijuana yesterday and all had several drinks. Mrs. Klauss became violently sick upon her return to San Diego and Rogers took her to a hospital.

Mrs. Alviso told police officials that she and Mrs. Klauss had taken two "shots" of cocaine, which they purchased from a street peddlar at Tijuana.

In addition to poison disclosed by an autopsy, physicians found a number of bruises on her body and a deep scalp wound.

Mrs. Klauss was the wife of John Klauss, a sailor on the U.S.S. Breeze. Her mother, Mrs. William Kenyon, lives in Snohomish, Wash. When the party was placed under arrest, a new automobile registered to Alice Barnes of Oakland, was in their possession.

Wife of Actor Harlan Files Divorce Suit

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—Mrs. Florence C. Harlan, an actress, filed a suit for divorce in the Supreme Court today against Kenneth D. Harlan, motion-picture actor, who, his wife said, "is regarded as a star and receives $26,500 a year." Harlan will be served by mail in Los Angeles, where he now lives. Prior to bringing the present action Mrs. Harlan sued for a separation. She explained that she is bringing the divorce suit because a discovery made by her "has convinced me that he is incorrigible."

Her husband has ceased to support her, said the plaintiff, she is without funds, dependent on her parents for support and cannot return to her stage work, feeling that she is unfitted for it after an absence of several years. Mrs. Harlan asks for $200 a week alimony and $3000 counsel fees.

TARIFF BILL TANGLE LOOMS

American Valuation Plan or Nothing, Says Fordney

May Remain in Session Until Next Snow Flies

Expect Bitter Fights During Senate Consideration

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—"It will be American valuation or Congress will remain here until the snow flies," Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means Committee declared today after he had been informed officially that the Senate Finance Committee majority finally had determined upon foreign valuation as the underlying principle of the tariff bill which probably will be reported to the Senate tomorrow.

ORIGINAL PLAN

"We will now insist on the original American valuation plan as written in the House bill," Fordney continued.

"The Senate committee majority went back on the compromise American wholesale selling price of the imported article to which we agreed and now that bargain is off."

Asserting that the Senate was "overwhelmingly" for American valuation the House committee chairman said it was his opinion that the Senate managers would agree to that valuation when the bill got into conference between the Senate and House.

Fordney declared that he would never agree to Congress adjourning until the tariff bill had been passed.

"It is nonsense to talk about such a thing," he said. "Any man who suggests such a thing wants to defeat the tariff and therefore is an enemy to American industry and labor."

Reiterating that the House would not yield on the valuation question Fordney said he did not believe there were more than a dozen men on the Republican side who would "not stand firm for American valuation and fight it out."

HARD TO EQUALIZE

"In the case of many articles of import," continued Fordney, "there is no duty short of 1000 to 2000 per cent that would equalize the difference between American and foreign values. Such duties would be extreme and the people would not stand for them. It would be suicide to attempt them."

Congressman Longworth of Ohio thought it would take from two to three months for the Senate to pass the measure and this view seemed to be somewhat general at the Capitol.

Long fights were expected on a number of the provisions in the bill more particularly those involving dyes, hides, shoes and leather, wool, cotton, lumber, metals and farm products. Many lesser controversies also were in prospect with one probably centering around efforts of dry advocates to include in the bill general provisions aimed against liquor smuggling.

HARDING INVITED TO VISIT LOS ANGELES

ACCEPTANCE HINGES ON THE ABILITY OF CONGRESS TO ADJOURN IN JULY

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Representative Osborne will place before President Harding the joint invitation of the City Council of the city of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to visit Los Angeles and Southern California when he makes his trip to Alaska.

It is expected that the President will accept the invitation providing Congress adjourns in time for him to make the trip before weather conditions interfere.

Senator Lodge and Senator Curtis, the majority leader and the whip respectively, have fixed the time of adjournment as between July 1 and July 15. Members of the Senate Finance Committee declare that the best possible progress will not permit adjournment before August 1.

President Harding is anxious for first-hand knowledge of the territory of Alaska and in making out the program gives himself until August 5 to leave Washington. If Congress it not finished before that time, he will probably have to abandon this trip and may take a warship and visit the great exposition in South America which opens in Rio, September 7.

INDIANS PAYING THEIR OWN WAY

School Funds Used Belong to Tribes

Interior Department Has Charge of Funds

Muskogee Institution Large and Busy One

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MUSKOGEE (Okla.) April 10.—The modern American Indian may be said to be paying his own way in pursuit of an education, for nearly all funds expended in the education of the Indians of Oklahoma belong to the tribe administered under the Department of the Interior, according to H. C. Calhoun, supervisor of the Five Civilized Tribes schools here. These schools form the largest unit of Indian schools operated under one supervision in the country, he added.

The supervision of the schools of the five civilized tribes—Cherokee, Choctaw, Chickasaw, Creek and Seminole—has to deal with three phases of school activity, which are ranked in importance as follows: Tribal boarding schools, public day schools and private contract schools.

There are nine tribal boarding schools and seven contract schools, while the public day school system includes 2306 districts with an enrollment of about 18,000 Indian children. The supervisor's office has jurisdiction over the Indian pupil only in these day schools, not over the public schools as such.

The tribal boarding schools are maintained for each distinct tribe and are completed educational plants. Each is equipped with kitchen, dining-room, dormitory, laundry, hospital, and facilities for industrial and academic education.

Most of these schools have a large acreage which is tilled and the product used in the maintenance of the school.

Agriculture is emphasized in all the Indian industrial schools, although shop work, carpentry, leather machine and metal work, home making for girls and scientific home economics, all are a part of the industrial course. The industrial program is a part-time process, Mr. Calhoun explained, with the pupil devoting half his time to industrial education and half to academic instruction. The academic courses are designed particularly for the Indian.

Six of the contract schools are denominational institutions, according to Mr. Calhoun, while the seventh is a State agricultural school. Courses in these institutions include industrial and academic.

KILLS MAN WHO STRUCK MOTHER

Son Avenges Attack by Brute; Is Held for Murder

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 10. — An old Army Colt, a long-barreled six-shooter of the seventies, was the weapon used by Carl Veith, 37 years old, of Brooklyn, to avenge an attack upon his aged mother. Veith is in the Tombs charged with murder in the first degree for having killed William Doyle, 35 years old, a Bowery ne'er-do-well, whom he had taken into his home. Doyle had beaten his benefactor's aged mother as she lay on a sick bed because she refused him money for drink, according to the police.

"I killed him. I would do it again. Any man who loves his mother would have done the same thing," said Veith last night.

MILLER & LUX LOSE FAMOUS LAND CASE

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT REFUSES TO REVIEW QUESTION OF TITLES

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Supreme Court today refused to review the question of title to certain lands in California claimed by the San Joaquin and Kings River Canal and Irrigation Company, Miller & Lux, and the Union Colonization Company, on the ground of appropriation, and by W. H. Worswick Jr., and others on the ground of riparian rights. In the lower courts the riparian claimants were successful.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The refusal of the United States Supreme Court today to review the San Joaquin and Kings River Canal and Irrigation Company cases allows to stand the decision of the California Supreme Court, which refused to enjoin owners of approximately 20,000 acres of land in the San Joaquin Valley from using water claimed by the company.

This Company, a Miller & Lux, Inc., interest, asked the injunction on the ground that the appropriation interests acquired nearly fifty years ago were superior to the riparian rights of later settlers higher up on the San Joaquin River bottom. The State Supreme Court held that this would be the case but for the fact that the riparian owners acquired their title from the government itself.

The decision affects the irrigation of 150,000 acres of land on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley. By stipulation it also governs the diversion of water by the Sierra Chautauqua resort from Big Creek, in the mountains east of Fresno.

REAL REFUGE FOR BURGLAR

Advantages for Bandits in New York

Average Marksmanship Was Low Last Week

Sidecar Squadron Proves to be Fizzle

BY LOUIS LEE ARMS
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—When it comes to service there is probably no town in the country that offers a burglar so many advantages as New York City. It isn't to be wondered at that most of them come here as soon as they can afford it.

While the burglars turned in a low marksmanship average last week on United Cigar Store and Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company managers, failing to shoot one for seven days, they performed with great efficiency in other directions.

It was what you might call retired bankers' week. One retired banker was locked in his own wine cellar with his wife and servants while burglars looted the home of $80,000 worth of jewels and silverware. Another banker went to the opera and came home to discover the equivalent of $25,000 in jewels and furs had been carried off.

SOME COMMISSIONER

In spite of these little inadvertencies Mayor Hylan can be counted upon at any time to come to his feet and proclaim Enright the greatest Police Commissioner New York City ever had. There probably isn't a burglar in town who will disagree with him. Especially so if they should chance to recall Arthur Woods of the Mitchel administration.

Some time ago Commissioner Enright put in a flying squadron of motorcycles with side cars which were built to accommodate two policemen and which were supposed to range up and down the Island of Manhattan striking terror to the hearts of the burglars.

To see one of these cycles tearing down the boulevard with pedestrians fleeing for dear life was a sad commentary on the rigors of metropolitan existence. So far as is known the sidecar squadron never brought down a burglar, but they clipped a few pinfeathers off of ordinary citizens from time to time.

GOOD IDEA AT TIME

Commissioner Enright now admits that the sidecar idea has not worked out as effectively as he had anticipated. Pedestrians of Fifth avenue and Central Park west are a little in doubt as to just what the commissioner expected.

At any rate New York now has automobile flying squadrons and, thanks to the diligence of the press, burglars and pedestrians have been duly warned. A case-hardened New Yorker might have intercepted a sidecar and lived to sue the city for damages. But even a man who had been raised in a Bronx express could scarcely afford to get in the path of the new-fangled flying squadron.

REGULAR "DETECTIVES"

In addition to the flying squadron, plain-clothes men have been turned out on the streets during the late hours by the hundreds. In order not to arouse the suspicions of the burglars the plain-clothes men wear caps and turn their coat collars up after the manner of fictional Bowerytes.

This makes it interesting for those in the habit of arriving home in the early hours of the morning. After seeing a plain-clothes man on a dark street, a great many have turned around and gone back downtown for the night.

Paris in the days of Francois Villon never offered more thrills than the contemporary night life of this always interesting city.

PEACE MEMORIAL

It is very likely that New York's "peace memorial" to the soldiers and sailors who were killed in the World War will find an expression in a civic music center. This city has been empowered by the State Legislature to fix upon a site for a building which will be used for the advancement of education in music, the drama and other arts.

MARGOT GOT LIQUOR

Mrs. Margot Asquith is on her way back to "deah old Lunnon." She left the impression that she was not precisely satisfied with the manner of life in these United States. So few British tourists are.

In her country-wide tour, she declares, she found hotel managers more than obliging in their willingness to procure liquor for her party. She doesn't think from her observations that prohibition is working out very well here.

The Englishman, who generally rides harder and plays harder in a mistier climate, carries his liquor better than the American, she says.

She discovered also that our rapid, neurotic manner of life tended to the development of intelligence rather than intellect. The American, through his endless pursuit of the dollar, misses a great many things in life that he otherwise might acquire, she says.

FARM SANITATION OF JAPANESE LAX

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—Reports filed recently with the State Board of Health by two of its sanitary inspectors, Edward T. Ross and W. O. Deal, show that laxity is almost general among Japanese farmers and truck gardeners in California with regard to matters of sanitation, it was announced by representatives of the board here today in view of reports by the inspectors. These showed that out of 130 farms inspected practically all were found to be in need of attention because of some unsatisfactory arrangement.

The typhoid rate among the Japanese in California was declared to be higher than among any other race, which is partly responsible for the present situation.

The inspectors also report a willingness on the part of the Japanese to co-operate in the work of improvement, and in this, it was stated, they are being encouraged by the Japanese associations.

Brolaski's Conviction Must Stand

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The conviction of Harry A. Brolaski of San Francisco under the National Prohibition Act must stand, the Supreme Court today refusing to review his case.

He contended that his conviction in the United States District Court for Northern California should be set aside "because comments, remarks and observations of the court, coerced" the verdict against him and deprived him of certain constitutional rights.

The Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit affirmed the lower court in imposing a fine of $10,000 and imprisonment for two years.

TOWNS IN ROW OVER SOVIET DELEGATION

EACH CLAIMS REDS AS GUESTS AND ACCUSES OTHER; BLOODSHED FEARED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SANTA MARGHERITA (Italy) April 10. — The towns of Santa Margherita and Rapallo are waging a bitter feud as to which is host to the soviet delegation to the economic conference. There is talk of danger of bloodshed. While the Imperial Palace Hotel, in which the Bolshevik delegates are living, actually is within the municipal bounds of Rapallo, it is more than two miles from the Rapallo station and only two blocks distant from the Santa Margherita station.

It is declared that when impatient visitors reach Rapallo they have to hire taxicabs in order to reach the famous hotel with its marvelous mediaeval moats and portcullises and picturesque sentries.

The charge is made also that this is the second time Rapallo has robbed Santa Margherita of its glory.

The Italian-Jugo-Slav conference which settled the Fiume dispute also met at the Imperial Palace, and the treaty issuing was called the Treaty of Rapallo. It is reported that the Italian government will purchase the hotel and make it a national monument to peace if the Genoa conference is successful.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL [illegible], 1922.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA'S TITULAR GOLFING CLASSIC IS ON FOR TODAY

GEORGE COOK DISQUALIFIED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, April 10.—George Cook, Australian pugilist, was disqualified in the sixth round of a scheduled twenty-round bout here tonight with Joe Beckett for the championship of the British Empire.

CALDWELL WILL TAKE ON GEORGE

Cooney to Face Bud Soules in Semi-Wind-up at Vernon Arena Tonight

Young George has been made favorite over Walter Caldwell in their main event battle at the Vernon arena tonight. Caldwell engaged in a number of bouts with middleweights at Vernon a year or more ago, but at that time George was a welterweight. Now the local favorite has taken on some ten pounds and bars none of the 158-pounders. Caldwell was good when he appeared here against Cliff Jordan and other local favorites and, judging by his record, he is better than ever. He recently made a trip to Honolulu and cleaned up the best middleweights on the islands.

Tom Toohey, as good a welterweight as ever represented the Pacific fleet, will substitute for Gene Cline against Vind Soules. It should be a slugging match from start to finish. Soules recently made the biggest kind of a hit by his good bouts with Jimmy Marcus.

The feature preliminary will bring together Sailor Larry, the colored middleweight who recently met Young George at Vernon, and Kid Mexico, the heavy-hitting middleweight from the oil fields around Taft.

Other bouts in order of their appearance are:

Jack McAuliffe vs. Jack Mason, 145 pounds.
Joe Leipzig vs. Joe Gomez, 125 pounds.
Ora Williams vs. Frankie Reddy, 122 pounds.
Young Bunger vs. Scotty Welch, 145 pounds.

POSITIONS UNCHANGED

Positions in the Southern California Bowling Association remain about the same following last week's round of play. The Gallia and LaShell teams are tied for first place.

T-Bone Riley's team still figures strongly in the remaining games, having won last Friday's play and remaining close behind the leaders in the standings.

CAP ANSON RECOVERING

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, April 10.—"Cap" Adrian C. Anson, for years manager of the Chicago National Baseball club, was resting well at a hospital today following a hurried operation saturday. The veteran will be 70 years old April 17. He was stricken while on the street Saturday and was rushed to a hospital. Physicians said his condition is not serious.

Mashie Wielders Tuned Up to Tee Off

This Trio is Ready for Call to Clubs

Here are three high-powered golfers who will tee off today in the twenty-third annual Southern California golf tourney on the Flintridge-Pasadena courses. On the left appears Everett Seaver, of the Los Angeles Country Club. W. W. (Bill) Campbell of the Virginia club occupies the center position of the group, while Leigh Guyer of Pasadena is posed on the right.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT IN BIG SHOW

President Heydler Optimistic Over Outlook in National League This Year

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—"All prospects point to another successful baseball season," said President John A. Heydler of the National League today in discussing the outlook in the senior association.

"The National League will open its forty-seventh annual pennant race on Wednesday in possession of world's championship honors, well balanced clubs and the confidence and following of baseball patrons in both East and West," he continued, "and I feel safe in predicting high-class play, a close race and a fair share of the patronage which in the past has caused baseball to be termed the national sport."

"At least five clubs in our league have a chance to win the 1922 pennant and since nothing is certain in baseball any one of the other three may spring a surprise and confound even the experts. The New York Club, of course, as the winner of the world's series last year, carries its strength and prestige over into the new season. But it cannot be taken for granted that the game will repeat. "Boston, Pittsburg and St. Louis, on the showing in 1921, must be given a chance and I am inclined to believe that these clubs are stronger today than was the case seven months ago. If Brooklyn gets off to a good start its pitching staff will carry the club far."

CITRUS BELT LEAGUE OPENS NEXT FRIDAY

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

REDLANDS, April 10.—The Citrus Belt League baseball season was scheduled to have started last Friday, but because of the league track meet the games were postponed. The season will start next Friday when Chaffey will be here for a game. The schedule as rearranged follows:

April 18—Chaffey at Redlands; Pomona at San Bernardino; Riverside, bye.
April 21—Redlands at Pomona; Riverside at San Bernardino; Chaffey, bye.
April 25—San Bernardino at Chaffey; Riverside at Pomona; Redlands, bye.
May 2—San Bernardino at Redlands; Chaffey at Riverside; Pomona, bye.
May 12—Redlands at Riverside; Pomona at Chaffey; San Bernardino, bye.

SADDLE ENTRY IS HORSE SHOW FEATURE

One of the fifty classes of events of the first annual horse show which it to be held at the new Ambassador arena, May 13, is the amateur owners' saddle class. T. T. Strain, manager of the forthcoming Los Angeles show has interested himself personally in this event, and is giving a portion of his time daily to the direction of the training and practicing of the amateur riders of Los Angeles.

This event promises to reveal some real talent, both in fancy equine maneuvers and in expert horse manship of the riders.

THE COCKY GOLFER IS ALL SET

BY ONE UP

Well, this is the big day I've been waiting for for two years. Today the Southern California golf championship blow off begins to commence out at Pasadena and Flintridge, and yours truly is cocked and primed and rarin' to go. You remember our old college yell, "Are we right?" and the answer, "Well I should smile, we've been right for a hell of a while." Well that's me. I've got my drives and approaches and putts all working at once for the first time in my life, and if I don't give that lucky Von Elm, and them other so-called experts the surprise of their lives I'll eat my nibblick.

You see the point is that I've been laying for these birds for two years—just keeping my mouth shut and practicing, and waiting for the time to come for me to land on them all spraddled out. Two years ago over at San Gabriel, big Bill Campbell caught me away off form and scored a lucky win off me to the tune of ten and eight in the first round because I had a chill or something and couldn't hold my putter steady. And then the next day in the defeated eight some ham—player from over at Midwick, that I can't even remember his name, beat me 7 to 6 because I got careless and underestimated his Ethiopian luck, and then when I went home our club captain said, "Well, never mind, it was quite an honor for a ten handicap man to get into the first flight, anyhow."

SHOULD BE EASY.

"I ought a beat Campbell and that other dub, too," I says.

Bill Hallaby happened to be standing there and hear me say this, so he says:

"If you could get Campbell on a course where all the holes was dog legs to the right, you'd sure have him on the run with that slice of yours."

"I may slice a drive once in a while," I says to Bill, "but I don't slice eighteen-inch putts." And as I said this I took out my heavy nibblick and begun to make practice swings with it, because I had put Bill out of the club championship tournament the week before when he missed a short putt and blamed me for sneezing just as he took his stroke.

But I didn't have to use the nibblick on Bill, and I was glad of that. I cut a two-inch manzanita bush right off at the roots once with that club trying to get out of the rough at our number ten, and never busted the shaft or nothing, but I've always hoped that I'll never have to use that club on Bill—I'm afraid I could never get another with just the same lie and balance.

A LIL' SURPRISE

Well getting put out of the tournament that way kind of disgusted me, and then the month after that the same thing happened to me at Annandale, so I says to the captain, "I'm not going into another of these tournaments till I know I'm right. Anyhow I think I'm a little unsteady yet from being shell shocked while I was a four-minute man in the War, and I'm going to wait 'till I get over it."

So I never went into another tournament till today; and that's how it happens that Scotty and Seaver and the rest of them birds don't have any suspicion of what is likely to come off out there today.

TROJANS TO MEET CARDS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PALO ALTO, April 10.—University of Southern California's track and field team, composed of eight men, will clash in a return meet with the Stanford track aggregation here tomorrow on the Cardinals' oval. The Cards are expected to win the meet in easy fashion, but the Trojans will make them hump to get all their points.

The U.S.C. squad recently held the strong California tracksters to 52 to 54 score and is expected to give Stanford a little harder tussle. The Trojan athletes competing are Schiller, Evans, Boyle, Rogers, Kinney, Leahy, Simmons and Davis.

YACHTSMEN TO IMPROVE THEIR HOME

Extensive Alterations Are Planned for L. A. Clubhouse at Wilmington

A number of changes in the construction of the clubhouse of the Los Angeles Yacht Club are to be made. The yacht club recently consolidated with the Motorboat Club and the headquarters moved to the put-puts' house at Wilmington.

The yachtsmen had a grand clubhouse on the bluff of outer San Pedro. Part of this structure may be used at the new site.

An improvement committee has been appointed, with Jimmy Jump, chairman, and Morgan Adams and Paul Jeffers.

It has been thought advisable, and no doubt will be done, to raise the clubhouse at Wilmington a full story and widen it, affording the members, when completed, every comfort.

A number of the sailing ships that were anchored in the yacht club anchorage in the outer harbor have moved into new berths in the inner channel. More room will be had soon, when the Harbor Board sets the dredgers to work.

In a short while all craft that were moored in the outer harbor will be moved into their new home, making the fleet of the Los Angeles Yacht Club probably the largest on the Pacific Coast. It will number well over 100 bottoms.

A Postponed Repentance

There was a man in Wisconsin who went to a revival meeting and was pressed to repent. He wavered for a time and finally arose and said, "Friends, I want to repent and tell how bad I have been, but I das'nt do it when the grand jury is in session."

"The Lord will forgive," the revivalist shouted.

"Probably he will," answered the sinner, "but he ain't on that grand jury."—[Boston Transcript.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, April 10.—The American League Browns retained their city championship by defeating the National League Cardinals 6 to 3 here yesterday before the greatest local crowd in the history of the game, 23,000 fans being registered at the turnstiles. The Cardinals have failed since 1917 to annex the city honors.

California Coach Predicts U. C. Victory

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BERKELEY (CAL.) April 10.—Two great all-around athletes, Brutus Hamilton of the University of Missouri and Jack Merchant of the University of California, will get into action against each other when their teams oppose each other in a dual track meet here April 15.

Hamilton, captain of the visiting team, holds the American decathlon record, doing 12 feet in the pole vault, 43 feet in the shot-put, 23 feet 4 inches in the bread jump, 100 yards in 10 and 1-5 seconds, throws the discus 132 feet, the javelin 180 feet and high jumps 6 feet 11 inches.

Merchant is not as versatile as Hamilton, but it is thought he will take more points in Saturday's meet. Merchant throws the hammer 168 feet, has broad-jumped 130 feet 1 inch, puts the shot 42 feet, throws the discus 130 feet, the javelin 170 feet and can do the hundred-yard run in 10 seconds.

CHRISTIE CONFIDENT

California's coach, Walter Christie, believes that his team, which won the national title at the Harvard meet of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America last year, will have little trouble in winning from Missouri, which is reported sending west the weakest Tiger team which has represented the Columbia university in many seasons. There will be fourteen men on the Missouri team and fifteen on the California squad.

California's team will be selected from the following men:

A. B. Cree, 100 reps and 220.
J. Riemer, 440 and relay.
G. Pierce, 880.
H. Henderson, high hurdles and relay.
M. E. Van Sant, low hurdles.
H. Nott, low hurdles.
Pete Fair, mile.
Brick Muller, high jump, discus and javelin.
W. Irons, mile.
G. Knowlton, two-mile.
C. M. Dorr, two-mile.
R. Berg, broad jump.
D. Dalton, high jump.
G. Norris, pole vault.
D. Graham, pole vault.
R. Berkey, discus.
C. C. Matheny, shot.
J. Witter, shot.

RAINBOW CLUB IS OPEN TO MEMBERS

The opening of the trout season still being several weeks away, quite a number of the anglers are wondering just what the Rainbow Angling Club is all about, how one can catch trout out of season and as many as wanted.

For the information of all trout followers, the Rainbow Club is a private affair, like a golf or country club. The streams and pools on the property, near Redlands, are privately stocked from the club's hatcheries, affording great fishing the year round. Natural feeding is another feature and the fish take to flies greedily. Only members, their guests and friends can fish at the club.

Vernonites All Set for Big Series Here

Ping Bodie Will Practice This Afternoon

Charley Deal to Don Unie at Washington Park

BY ED O'MALLEY

The Vernon baseball team Arrived in "Los Angeles from Salt Lake yesterday a little after noon, the traip being about three hours late. At it was the first sunshine they had felt since they left there about a week ago, the lads beat it to Washington Park and got busy in the unlimbering line. About two hours practice was enough to get the kinks out of their joints.

Manager Essick ordered the Tigers to be on hand this morning for an ante meridian gambol. It is more than likely that Wheeler Dell will be on the mound this afternoon when the Bengals take on the Angels in the first of a seven-game series. Ote Crandall will likely oppose Wheeze. Vernon is the home team.

PING ARRIVES

Soon after the jungle babes had finished their workout yesterday afternoon, Ping Bodie breezed upon the scene and had a talk with Eddie Maier. Ping was to have joined the Tigers at Salt Lake, but when Essick saw that there was no chance to play in the Mormonburg Sunday, he wired to Bodie to come right on to Los Angeles.

The new Vernon center fielder will report for practice today, but will not be able to get into the game until May 12 when his suspension by Commissioner Landis expires. The famous fence buster had the following to say to Owner Maier:

FEELS GOOD

"Feel pretty good, Eddie, and still have some hits up my sleeve. Isn't there some way we can get together and have Landis lift the suspension, for I'm just a dying to get into the game. It's going to be pretty tough to sit on that bench until May 12. I weigh about 180 pounds and am just about 10 pounds overweight, but I can pull them off in a short time. I made good for ten years up in the big show and still think I have about five years left on the Coast. All I want you to do Eddie, is to keep me fed up on good beer and I'll show you that the old bird is still there with the stick.

"Am dickied to death to get back to the Coast. Every time the train stopped for a short time I would get out and throw rocks at the telegraph poles and I want to tell you that the old peg I still there."

GREETS FENCE

During a lull in the talk, Ping took a glimpse of the left field fence. "Gee," he burst forth, "they had better move that fence back if they don't, I won't get a chance to bust any boards." Ham Hyatt cautioned Bodie to be quiet as some one might hear him and prevail upon the powers that be to take Ping at his word.

Charley Deal, the Angel's new third sacker called at the Washington Park office yesterday and had a talk with the officials. He is feeling in pretty fair shape after his trip from Chicago. Charley says that his legs will need a few days workout to get htme in playing shape—otherwise he declared he was ready for action.

Stage A.A.U. Track Championships at Oxy Saturday

ATHLETES SLOW TO ENTER LISTS

Southland Varsity and Prep Men to Compete

Expect Thrilling Meet When Big Stars Clash

All Entries Must be Filed by Tonight

Prep athletes from the neighboring villages will be out in force when the annual A.A.U. track and field championships are staged Saturday afternoon at Patterson Field. Graduate Manager Fred McLain of Occidental, who is handling the affair, has received applications from more of the distant institutions than from those close at hand, and wishes it announced that the entry list will be closed at 7:00 p.m. today.

This is in accordance with a recent resolution passed by the Southern Pacific Association of the A.A.U., which states that applications not in the hands of the officials four days before the holding of A.A.U. championships will not be considered. McLain will adhere strictly to this ruling.

Some of the more recent entries are those from Ventura, Santa Monica and Oxnard, promising some real competition from the high-school ranks. Bud Houser, national interscholastic champion in the weights, will probably win both the shot put and the discus throw in spite of the efforts of such college stars as Johnny Boyle, Swede Evans and Harleson.

Young Ayers, who performs under the colors of Ventura High, is destined to give Charley Daggs something to ponder over in the low hurdles, having stepped off the barriers in 25 2-5s. in a recent meet with Oxnard. While Daggs is capable of better time than this, he hasn't been at his best this season, and will have to hurry to keep in front of Ayers.

Santa Monica's hopes will rest on the sorrel-thatched Kerr, a miler and Scherb, who is expected to figure in the 220. It is uncertain yet whether Paddock will run in Saturday's meet, but it is to be hoped that he returns from his recent jaunt to Honululu in time to give the fans a treat at Patterson Field.

CLEVELAND INDIANS SET FOR "PLAY BALL"

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.) April 10.—The regulars of the Cleveland Indians are back in their ball yard to complete their training for the 1922 season, which opens Wednesday.

Despite bad weather this spring, Manager Speaker says the players are in pretty good shape. He expressed confidence that practice today and tomorrow would put his men on edge.

The regulars returned last night from Columbus, where yesterday they administered a 10 to 4 defeat to the Senators.

The yannigans are due to arrive from Des Moines tonight. They lost to that team yesterday 5 to 1.

NATIONALS CERTAIN TO LAND NEAR TOP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Strengthened by the acquisition of Roger Peckinpaugh, former shortstop and captain of the champion New York team, and the addition of several promising rookie pitchers, the Washington Americans face the opening of the season practically assured of a first division berth and regarded as a contender for the pennant.

Walter Johnson, who usually pitches the opening game for the locals, will not perform in that capacity this year. His training has been retarded by illness. George Mogridge, leading left-hander of the league last season, probably will oppose the Yankees in the first game.

JAWN IS GIVEN MERRY HA-HA

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—Eddie Collins of the White Sox, considered by many experts to be baseball's greatest second sacker, is slipping, says John McGraw of the Giants.

During the White Sox-Giants game at the Polo Grounds yesterday McGraw engaged his veteran comrade, Kid Gleason, in conversation.

"Now," said the Kid in the course of the tete-a-tete, "there's Collins; he's the class."

"Ah, yes," mused McGraw, "but he's a-slippin'."

"Why?" queried Gleason.

"Well, he's beginning to get a double chin. It's a sure sign. They don't cover the ground or hit as well when they get that way."

At this juncture Eddie made a long dive and speared a line drive back of second with one hand and—

Gleason laughed.

DEMPSEY EMULATES OLD KINGS

Champion Follows in Footsteps of Predecessors by European Invasion

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—In his invasion of Europe Jack Dempsey, who sails on the Aquitania, will be emulating the habit which most of the American world heavyweight champions have been addicted to since John L. Sullivan took England by storm.

The Dempsey party will land at Southampton and proceed to London by rail to look around. Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, has no definite plans, but from a perusal of the passports, the group is carrying, it appears that none of the numerous lands of Europe is likely to be missed. Manager Kearns, Joe Benjamin, Pacific Coast lightweight and friend of Dempsey, and Teddy Hayes, Dempsey's secretary, make up the party.

GEORGE LAVIGNE TO INVADE THE EAST

George Lavigne, the clever Los Angeles scrapper, has just recovered from an operation for appendicitis. Lavigne has aspirations to conquer the East and for that purpose will leave here today accompanied by Manager Morrie Cohn. The two will stop off at Dallas, Tex., on their eastern trip. Cohn has several matches in view for Lavigne at Dallas with scrappers of class.

From Dallas Lavigne and his manager will hike to New York and will remain around there until next July, when he will return to California. Lavigne is one of the best boys of his weight that has been developed in Southern California in some time and unless all signs fail he should hold his own with the tough boys around Gotham.

SINGS PRAISES OF RICHARDS

Tilden Says He is Apt to Win National Net Title

Predicts Battle Royal for Singles Cup This Year

R. D. Sears Holds Record for Continuous Success

BY WILLIAM T. TILDEN II,
Tennis Champion of the World, 1920, 1921

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—The greatest sporting event in the world of amateur sport is the annual battle for the American tennis championship. The enormous crowds, combining social and artistic celebrities with the great mass of the general public, together with the greatest players from all of the nations challenging for the Davis cup, make the championship a unique event in the sporting calendar.

Many remarkable records have been established during the thirty-four years of the tournaments. Names have been written in letters of undying fame on the books of tennis history. Matches that will never be forgotten have featured the final rounds when the title itself hung in the balance. It is of some of these outstanding figures that I would write.

The days of a man holding the title longer than a few short years are over. There are too many great players now in the game and far too many rising to take their places to allow any one to outdistance the field sufficiently to insure him a long reign. It is to the past that we must look for the champions of a term of years.

R. D. Sears set a record for continuous success that will ever be surpassed, in my opinion. It must be recalled that, in the old days, the titleholder stood out and met the winner of the All-Comers in the challenge round, a ruling which clearly had a bearing on the results. Sears won the American title for seven consecutive years, from the inauguration of the event in 1881 until the close of 1887. No man in the history of the game has equaled that record, although the seven victories were tied by William A. Larned over a period of ten years. Larned first won the championship in 1901 after knocking at the door of fame for some seasons. He completed his wonderful career in 1911, defaulting to M. E. McLoughlin in 1912, when the holder was called on to play through the event.

ANOTHER STAR

R. D. Wren, with four years as champion to his credit, is the other outstanding figure from the days of the defending title-holder. O. S. Campbell and M. D. Whitman each won the championship three times.

The season of 1912 found the defending champion a thing of the past and William A. Larned retired with one leg on the new trophy cup, which is still in competition. The effect of playing through is clearly shown by the fact that no man has yet succeeded in winning three years during the last ten. I am a great believer in the champion playing through, for, although it is harder on him, I consider it a far fairer arrangement. The cup, which is still in competition, is the most famous trophy now in existence. The names on the cup read like a "Who's Who" of American tennis of the past decade:

1911—William A. Larned.
1912—M. E. McLoughlin.
1913—M. E. McLoughlin.
1914—R. N. Williams.
1915—W. M. Jonhnston.
1916—R. N. Williams.
1917—R. L. Murray—this event was the patriotic tournament.
1918—R. L. Murray.
1919—W. M. Johnston.
1920—W. T. Tilden II.
1921—W. T. Tilden II.

BATTLE ROYAL

From the foregoing it can be seen at a glance what a battle royal there will be this year for the cup. McLoughlin, Johnston, Williams and I have two legs each on the bowl. Another victory for one of us and the cup is ours to keep. We all value it, not for the cup itself, but for the names engraved on it. There is no reason, to be sure, that the cup will pass out of competition this year, for all the great players of the world will be in the championship. Not since 1903, when H. L. Doherty carried the title to England, has the singles championship left our shores. Yet not only must the invading army of foreign players be seriously considered as contenders, but a young American who has come to the front in the past three years must be placed in the front rank. If the cup is saved from passing out of competition, it is my opinion that the man who will save it is none other than that greatest of all junior players, Vincent Richards. I am sure that it is but a matter of time before Richards places his name among the singles champions of America. It would not surprise me if 1922 found him crowned the new champion.

ANGELES VISTA GOLF COURSE IS POPULAR

Nearly two hundred people played on the new Angeles Vista golf course last Sunday, according to Messrs. White and Noble, who are managing this pretty eighteen-hole links.

The course has only been open about two weeks, but because of the ease with which it can be reached and its close-in location, it is fast becoming popular with the many golfers who formerly had to chase over to Griffith Park and wait in line or join a club. The only charge imposed on players at the Angeles Vista course is a 50-cent green charge which allows the player to enjoy himself as long as he wishes.

BARNES SETS TOURING MARK

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—Long Jim Barnes, United States open golf champion, has returned to his post at the Pelham club, completing the longest playing tour ever made by a golfer.

Accompanied by Jock Hutchison, the Glenview (Chicago) professional, who captured the British open title at St. Andrews last year, Barnes started out at the close of the golf season. He played in Western Canada and along the west coast of the United States, then spent several months in the Southern States. Their tour carried them more than 10,000 miles.

Barnes and Hutchison played in many matches, losing but few. Jock won the California northern State open championship and Barnes was victor in the California open.

Barnes said last night that he was not certain that he would be able to go abroad this year to play in the British open-title tournament.

San Francisco drew 15,000 the opening day. Sacramento's count was 12,000. At least so read the dispatches. The Los Angeles turnstile count was a little less than 8000. Hence some chortling on the part of our amiable northern neighbors.

We chortle with them, and only trust that this early showing means that the southern clubs will prosper when visiting those communities later. However, it is somewhat darkly hinted among baseball folks that the San Francisco attendance figures, as a rule, are unofficial, and somewhat offhand, on the theory that a few thousand more is all right among friends, although a few thousand less would never do. In Sacramento they have a new park, with the result that the seats have been recently counted, so the estimate of the crowd must have been approximately correct. And we are not saying that the San Francisco returns were padded, but merely repeating what has been whispered by Rene Rumor and Sir Scandal.

• • •

We freely admit that the opening-day crowd would have been scandalous under normal conditions. But there were mitigating circumstances.

For one thing it was a warmed-over opening, no more like the real thing than hash is like the original roast. A postponement always takes the sap out of the proceedings. Grounds were wet from the day before, rain threatened, and it lacked considerable of being balmy. In fact, it was so cold that the ladies hadn't even thought yet of putting on their summer furs.

But the town redeemed itself the following Sunday, when 11,596 paid to see the doings. These figures were not inflated with deadheads. It was the box-office count.

However, we frankly and willingly, almost eagerly, confess that Los Angeles isn't a "first-day" town. But when it comes to a steady play on the turnstiles she is almost in the major-league class.

• • •

Opening-day crowds are not necessarily an index to the support which a city will accord the great national pastime. This statement is based on personal observation, and supported by Secretary Weber of the Angels, who has been studying the peculiarities of various baseball populations for two decades.

In a small town the observance of any special occasion always is more general. It will turn out crowds greater in proportion to its population than larger cities. This is explained by difficulties of transportation, and a greater diversity of interests. The small community concentrates on a given event.

"Opening day in some cities is a good deal like the Fourth of July, or a circus coming to town," Weber explained. "The natives are a long time talking about it, and turn out in large numbers. Then they forget it. Opening day is a bigger thing with them than the season itself."

Cincinnati is a big-league town with this small-town characteristic. The first day of the season always finds enthusiasm rampant. After which, unless well up in the race, the Reds are likely to play to empty seats and echoes.

• • •

Los Angeles at the end of the present season probably will show an aggregate total of week-day attendance exceeding that of any minor-league city in the country, while it is rapidly becoming a good Sunday-baseball town.

We do not base this estimate on continuous baseball, but will halve the figures between the two at the end of the season, taking those of the southern team drawing the largest crowds. The Angels, I believe, two years ago established a new minor-league mark in box-office counts. Previously there had been many claims and counter claims of attendance around the circuit, but war-tax returns made it possible to ascertain the real dope.

• • •

So we are perfectly willing and happy that the neighbors should make opening day a gala occasion. As Los Angeles pulls ahead in population other cities will outdraw us proportionately. It was ever thus.

Sacramento draws 12,000 at the start. Los Angeles to do as well would have to turn out approximately 120,000, and New York a gay little opening-day game of 1,190,000. Can't be done. No parks to fit 'em.

and will be seen in practice with the Seraphs this afternoon. He will hardly get in the line-up until next week. With the reporting of Deal, the troubles of Red Killefer are numbered with the dead. It is also expected that Leftfielder Sullivan will hold down the outer garden next week, in which case, many fans believe, the Angel's line-up will be the strongest ever gotten together in a minor league club.

OLYMPIC CLUBMEN CAPTURE NET TITLE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The Olympic Club of San Francisco won the Northern California interclub tennis championship yesterday by taking six matches of nine from the California Club on the Berkeley courts. The Olympians won four doubles and two singles matches. William M. Johnston, former national champion and John Strachan, former national clay court title holder, shared the honors.

Over at Pasadena, where the "fourteen and over" athletes will play, everything is in fine shape. The tee balls have been moved back to their limits and nobody will be allowed to use the sand tees. Casey Form Ball League in Southland

The Southern California Knights of Columbus League was formed at a meeting held at the Los Angeles Knights of Columbus clubhouse. Frank Crowley was elected president, Jimmy Cleary, secretary, and O. F. Markel, treasurer.

Los Angeles council will enter two teams, Santa Ana, San Pedro, Anaheim, Pasadena, Santa Monica and Riverside councils will also have teams in the field.

The season will open Sunday, the 23rd inst., and will run fourteen weeks, closing July 23. The winning team will represent Southern California at the State convention at San Jose in September. The Spalding cork center ball was adopted as the official ball of the league.

No Other Tire Tempts Goodyear Users

There are still thousands who think that one tire is much like another.

But the largest single group of tire buyers in America evidently does not think so.

The proof of this is, that they continue to buy one Goodyear equipment after another, year after year.

If they did not prefer Goodyear Tires to any others, they would surely be tempted away by the special deals offered in scores of other makes.

But they are not tempted away.

Goodyear branches, Goodyear Service Station Dealers, Goodyear salesmen all say the same thing—that these customers buy, and buy, and buy again.

Goodyear buyers are sane, clear-headed, careful buyers like yourself.

They firmly believe in Goodyear quality and Goodyear features, because they have found that they make these tires go farther, last longer and so cost less in the end.

There are many Goodyear Service Stations in Los Angeles where Goodyear users can get Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Service. Go to any of them when you want tires. Take advantage of the great economy and satisfaction they offer you.

Manual Arts	1	1	.500
Jefferson	1	2	.333
Hollywood	1	2	.333
Long Beach	0	2	.000

The leadership of the City Baseball League is claimed by four teams, namely, Polytechnic, Lincoln, Pasadena and Los Angeles. Each squad has lost one game, so there is no chance of an undefeated champion. Last season Lincoln High went through the season without losing a contest.

There are no games scheduled for this week on account of the Easter vacation, but next week four good brawls will be played. Los Angeles High and Lincoln will furnish the feature contest on the Downey playgrounds, while the other games will be Pasadena at Manual, Long Beach at Jefferson, and Hollywood will hook up with the Poly Mechanics on Praeger Park.

Hollywood High School's baseball outfit will depart for San Diego this morning to fulfill a three-game engagement with teams of the border city. The Foothillers will meet the San Diego Army and Navy Academy in two games and will take on the Coronado team in a single battle.

DIFFICULT TASK

Picking the winner of the Los Angeles-Lincoln fracas is a hard proposition, both teams look like winners. The Railsplitters have a flock of healthy hitters who specialize in slamming the horsehide over the short right-field fence. The Romans also have two heavy right-field hitters in Barnett and C. Thompson. As for pitching, the Gophers have it on their rivals. Franz Osthaus and Reynolds take care of the Gophers' twirling, while Pete Thompson is the Railsplitters' only chucker. Los Angeles is the fastest team on the bases and is generally considered as the best fielding squad.

Pasadena and Manual meet in the next most important struggle on the Toilers' diamond. Pasadena rooters say their defeat by Hollywood was a mistake and they will prove it in the Manual game. On the other hand the Artisans have tasted victory and crave more of the same taste, which they expect to get in their game with the Bulldogs. Jefferson looks like an easy winner against Long Beach, but the Democrats are terribly weak at third base and unless they improve, the Seasiders are liable to hang the Indian sign on them. Hollywood and Poly tangle on Praeger Park in a game that is doped to go to the Mechanics, but after last week's slaughtering of the dope, the ravings of no dopester is safe to bank upon.

Body Believed to be That of Ontario Man

The body of a man found yesterday afternoon on the Ridge Route by F. W. Walters, Los Angeles motorist, with a bullet hole through the head, was believed in Ontario last night to be that of D. Stanley Jenkins, who formerly roomed at the home of H. S. Abbott, 124 East Fifth street, Ontario.

Jenkins is said to have gone to Ontario from Seattle some months ago with his father, David Samuel Jenkins, who died at the Mennonite Sanitorium there February 21, last, at the age of 67. Following the death of the father, the son is said to have returned to Seattle. It is not known just when he returned to California, but attaches of the Ontario postoffice, where he got his mail, declare they saw him here last Sunday morning.

The Abbott family with whom Jenkins formerly roomed, has since moved to Redlands.

Sickness Frees Two Jurors at Pickard Trial

Two jurors selected to try Albert B. Pickard on the charge of assault with intent to murder Ira M. Bradley, wealthy oil operator of Long Beach, were excused by Judge Houser yesterday, owing to sickness in their families. Two new jurors will be selected tomorrow to which date the trial was continued from yesterday. The jurors excused are Mrs. Ethel L. Weist and Mrs. Georgia Hargitt.

Mr. Pickard is charged with entering the office of Mr. Bradley and demanding the payment of $100,000 under threats of death. He charges Mr. Bradley with ruining his home in Texas.

Mr. Pickard was arrested after Mr. Bradley had paid him $20,000 with the promise of a note for $80,000. Mr. Bradley declares that it was a bald attempt to hold him up. Leona Pickard, the wife involved, will be a witness at the trial of her husband.

THIS SPORTING LIFE

BY W. A. PHELON

SIGNS OF SPRING

Spring is not measured by the calendar,
Nor by the early robins people see—
Those things may fool a lot of easy ones,
But have no interest for you and me.
'Tis often said that spring is really here,
When gates fly open at the baseball park,
And eager thousands braved the final frosts
To see the fun and hear the umpires bark.
Something in that—and yet, a surer sign,
Safest of all, our eager optics greet—
Spring really starts, and really takes a grip,
When all the kids play marbles in the street.

Among the hilarious spectacles of the early springtime may be included the ball player who "got into perfect condition on the farm," reported late, and is now endeavoring to judge the movement of either a pitched or batted ball.

NEEDFUL BLUE LAWS

Anyone caught with an ace in his sleeve shall get ninety days on the rock pile.

All touts, upon capture and identification, shall be shipped to Patagonia.

Switching the dice shall be punished with six months at hard labor.

Anyone throwing bottles at an umpire shall be fined $500 if he hits the umpire and shall be shot if he misses.

Promoters of wrestling matches shall be deported to Bering Sea.

Six-day bicycle races shall be permitted only once in every 215 years.

Ever see anything like Bob Martin's "triumphal tour to force a match with Jack Dempsey"? Every night, a new boob; every night a knockout—and not one of the knockees could stand four rounds against a lightweight amateur? And yet, they send folks to the strong-house for confidence games! games!

"Strong men, who know human nature and the art of government, are what this nation needs," says a contemporary. All right. We nominate Bill Evans, Bill Klem and Hank O'Day!

wrestling chieftans! Hooray!

L. A. HIGH STUDENTS FORM CHESS CLUBS

To all intents and purposes the younger generation thinks itself considerably smarter than the elder one. To prove this the master minds of the Los Angeles High School have started several chess clubs and are trying to make this highly interesting game an interscholastic sport.

The chess clubs are private affairs, but between them all there exists a sort of friendly competition, and several matches have been held between the clubs in order to stimulate interest. These mental heavyweights have managed to get the support of several faculty members and with their aid expect to schedule some interesting matches with other school teams.

MARSHAL JOFFRE IS NOT TO VISIT HERE

FAMOUS FRENCH OFFICER ON TOUR OF COUNTRY SENDS HIS REGRETS

Marshal Joffre is not coming to Los Angeles. Though he is making a tour of the United States, his time is so limited that he will be unable to include this city in his itinerary. In a letter addressed to Louis Sentous, French Consular Agent here, he expresses his regrets as follows:

"San Francisco, April 7, 1922.

"Dear Sir: I am deeply touched by the kind invitation that you address me on the part of the French colony, the veterans of the great war and the Society of Alsatians and Lorrainers of Southern California. Unfortunately, the short time of my stay in the United States does not permit me, as much as I would have desired, to pass through Los Angeles. Kindly tender in my name to the different societies of Los Angeles my sincere thanks with the expression of my regrets and my wishes for the prosperity of the city.

"Receive, dear sir, the assurance of my distinguished sentiments.

[Signed] "J. JOFFRE.

CONFESSION READ AT MURDER TRIAL

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS FAIL TO PREVENT STATEMENT FROM GOING TO JURY

The prosecutors in the case of James Wheaton and Calvin Rowell, on trial for the murder of Policemen Brett and Chester, won a signal victory yesterday when they succeeded in reading the purported confession of Wheaton to the jury. The case is being heard before Judge Parker.

The defense lawyers made a strenuous effort to keep the confession from the jury. They charged that former Chief of Police Jones and Detectives Hickok and Erven coerced Wheaton into signing. Wheaton testified that he signed the confession, but said he did so under the belief that he was turning State's evidence.

A similar battle will be waged by the defense to keep the confession of Rowell from the jury. Rowell also testified from the stand that when he signed the document he did so in the belief that he was a State's witness.

NOVEL TOURNEY AT DEL MONTE

Stage Peter Hay Event on April 22-23

Many Golfers Expected to File Entries

Other Affairs on Program at Popular Resort

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DEL MONTE, April 10.—The Peter Hay tournament scheduled at Del Monte on Saturday and Sunday, April 22 and 23, will contain some novel features that would be of interest to golfers, and should attract a large entry. The popular Del Monte professional has been allowed to make the conditions of the competition, which has been named for him, and he has figured on a sort of eclectic competition.

Eighteen holes of medal play will be played each day, with the winner being determined on the medal eclectic, and the putting eclectic. This putting feature is something new, and will give the expert with the putter an opportunity to come to the front. The putting green is to be defined by that area which has been cut and rolled. The eclectic will count during the two rounds, and it will give all classes of golfers an opportunity of possibly turning in some low scores.

There are several novel golf events staged at Del Monte during the course of the season to break the rush of the tournament play. The holiday features that have been carded are the Decoration Day tournament on May 27 to 30; the Independence Day tournaon July 1 to 4; the State junior championship on July 13 and 16; the summer tournament in August and the State golf championships in September.

Club and fraternal events which are to take place at Del Monte are the Bohemian Club tournament, April 25 to 30; Islam Temple, May 5 to 7; California Indians, May 8 to 14; California Bankers, May 24 to 27, and the national real estate tournament, June 4 to 6.

CONTRACT NOT ENFORCEABLE

Standard Fashion Company Loses Decision

Violation of Clayton Act is Court Ruling

Maintaining Resale Price is Illegal

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Manufacturers cannot enforce contracts under which dealers had agreed exclusively to handle their copyrighted products, the Supreme Court today held in a case brought by the Standard Fashion Company against the Magrane-Houston Company of Boston.

The issues involved were similar to those presented in the United Shoe Machinery case. In the latter control was exercised, the government contended, through leases based on patents, while in the Standard Fashion case the control, it was asserted, was attempted by contracts involving copyrighted articles. In both cases the lower Federal courts held the practices complained of to be in violation of the Clayton Act.

EXCLUSIVE CONTRACTS

The Standard Fashion Company and two affiliated companies, through a common holding-company control, the courts found, had exclusive contracts with about 20,000 of the 52,000 pattern agencies in the United States and Canada. Under the terms of the contract the agencies agreed not to sell patterns of other makes. When the Magrane-Houston Company violated the contract the Standard company sought an injunction and damages. The government was permitted to intervene when the case reached the Supreme Court.

Dealers acting as exclusive agents were required to maintain a minimum stock, purchased at prices one-half that at which the patterns were to be sold at retail. At stated periods out-of-style patterns were returned to the Standard company, the dealers receiving upon them a credit of 75 per cent of the purchase price.

CONTENTION REJECTED

The Fashion company insisted these contracts were only agreements of agency and not of sale, explaining it was intended to sell the patterns through local dealers to the public and not to the local dealer. The United States District and Circuit courts both rejected this contention, and considered the contracts as a part of a widely extended system which would enable the company or some other aggressive concern to control almost, if not all, the pattern business. Viewing the contract "in the light of the surrounding circumstances," the Circuit Court agreed with the District Court that the arrangement was unlawful. The courts also found that the contract contained a stipulation to maintain resale prices, and quoted decisions declaring such contracts invalid.

LIGHT AND POWER BONDS AUTHORIZED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10. — The San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation was authorized by the Railroad Commission today to issue $2,625,000 of 6 per cent series C bonds, due Aug. 1, 1950, in order to refund a like amount of 5 per cent bonds due Nov. 1, 1935. Holders of the 5 per cent bonds are authorized to convert them into 6 per cent bonds, and for such as are not exchanged, the company purposes redemption at 104.

The company was authorized to issue $3,500,000 6 per cent series B bonds to finance the cost of additions and betterments.

ROCKEFELLER GIFT AND OFFICIAL GONE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—John D. Rockefeller gave $5000 to the Constitutional League of America. But the $5000 disappeared along with Jerome A. Myers, secretary of the league. A bench warrant has been issued for Myers's arrest. Detectives have been unable to find him, either in Baltimore or Washington, where he was reported to have gone. He is said to be on the way to Japan.

Disclosure of the Rockefeller gift and the charge of grand larceny against Myers resulted from a grand-jury investigation of the league's affairs by Dist.-Atty. Banton.

FATTY'S CASE NEAR END

Prosecution's Star Witness Given Lie in Defense Testimony on Rappe Girl's Condition

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Today marked the opening of the fifth week of the third trial on a charge of manslaughter of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle and the end of the case seemed near. The sessions today were occupied by both sides in the placing together of bits of evidence tending to complete the chains of testimony, and when the court adjourned the defense had concluded its case.

The State had the first inning, offering by way of surrebuttal, Mrs. Minnie Buck of Los Angeles, who said she acted as maid for Miss Virginia Rappe, for whose death the prosecution asserts Arbuckle is responsible, and never saw her ill.

Mrs. Bertha L. Behr of Los Angeles, testifying for the defense, asserted that she had overheard Mrs. Joseph Hardebeck, star witness for the prosecution, say on one occasion that Miss Rappe had been ill. Mrs. Hardebeck had stated on the stand, that Miss Rappe had been in good health while she knew her.

Fred Krueger and Neal Kelley, Los Angeles chauffeurs, declared that they were present when Harold Ford, also a State witness, had told a group of persons that Miss Rappe had an attack while in his car. Ford, who had been Miss Rappe's chauffeur for five months, swore he had never seen her ill.

The State is expected to offer several witnesses tomorrow morning, and it is likely that arguments will begin in the afternoon, with Asst. Dist.-Atty. Milton U'Ren opening for the State.

Mrs. Helen Madeline Whitehurst and Mrs. Virginia Warren of Chicago, were summoned to appear before the grand jury tonight to explain certain phases of their testimony as to the conditions and habits of Miss Rappe.

Truslow, formerly vice-president and manager of the bank, and Leslie Forrest, former cashier. Deposits at the time of the failure exceeded $800,000.

Van Fleet after Howe had submitted affidavits that he never had advised John Haanstra, A. H. Cain and W. S. Hooper, his clients, not to divulge information as to the whereabouts of bonds alleged to have been stolen from a Southern Pacific mail car in this city in May, 1921.

Howe's affidavits were supported by Asst. U. S. Dist.-Atty. Grove J. Fink, who stated that the three men had confessed as to how they had obtained the bonds and as to their disposal. Neither Fink nor any other Federal officers would amplify their statements that the trio had confessed to the robbery.

Haanstra, Cain and Hooper are under sentence to McNeil Island Federal prison following pleas of guilty to charges of conspiracy in connection with the robbery.

Roy Gardner, mail bandit extraordinary, now in Leavenworth Federal penitentiary, once was connected with the robbery, but the secret confessions are said to have cleared him completely.

DAUGHERTY IN INDIANAPOLIS

Attorney-General Confers With Anderson

Judge Against Dismissal of Pending Suits

Coal Strike Debate Planned in New York

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) April 10. With the view of opening the way for possible settlement of the nation-wide suspension of work by coal miners, Atty.-Gen. Daugherty arrived here today from Washington unannounced, and after a two-hour conference with Federal Judge Anderson, declared he did not know whether "dismissal was possible or practical at this time" of the indictments charging 220 coal operators, union leaders and others with conspiracy to violate the Sherman antitrust law.

In private conference with the judge Mr. Daugherty discussed dismissal of the indictments, which action was said would remove the ground for the refusal of some operators to continue interstate wage negotiations with the union. Judge Anderson, who declined to discuss what transpired at the conference with the Attorney-General, was said to have refused to approve dismissal of the pending cases.

Further conferences with the officials here are on the Attorney-General's program for tomorrow.

DEBATE ON STRIKE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 10.—The question, "What lies back of the strike and what lies ahead?" will be the subject of a public debate at the Hotel Astor, April 21, under the auspices of the Survey Associates, it was announced today by Arthur P. Kellogg, a director.

Leaders of the debate were named as Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College and former United States fuel administrator; Thomas H. Watkins, chairman of the board of directors of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producers' Association, and president of the Pennsylvania Coal & Coke Corporation; Phillip Murray, vice-president of the United Mine Workers of America, and Robert J. Bruere, director of the Bureau of Industrial Research.

SPREAD REPUTED

The spread of the strike into nonunionized bituminous mines was reported today at both union headquarters and offices of the operators' organization.

"The trouble in the area is broadening slightly," said a telegram to one of the operators. "At one of the collieries of the Greensburg Coal Company about 75 per cent of the men joined the strikers."

Fifty thousand nonunion bituminous coal miners, in addition to almost half of the 155,000 workers in the anthracite industry who are not members of the United Mine Workers of America, are participating in the general suspension of work in the industry, according to the statement here today of President John L. Lewis, the miners' leader.

"The union men are standing firm and we are gaining strength in nonunion fields," declared Mr. Lewis.

SHY ON ESTIMATES

While no exact estimate was made of the men participating in the suspension, it was evident from Mr. Lewis's statement that union officials regarded their former estimate of 600,000 as having been exceeded. It was said authoritatively that the union regarded 640,000 men as participants in the walkout.

Mr. Lewis declined to apportion the distribution by States of the nonunion strikers further than to say 30,000 had been enlisted in Central Pennsylvania and several thousand in West Virginia, these States being those where the union centered attention on nonunion operators.

While numerous messages were received today by Mr. Lewis, he said the only immediate change was that progress was being made toward organizing the nonunion miners.

ADOPT OPEN SHOP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER, April 10.—Announcement that the Victor-American Fuel Company, heretofore the biggest union coal operator in the State, has introduced the open-shop policy in its mines was made today by President Huffman of the company.

The company's mine at Delagua, one of the largest in the State, was opened on the open-shop basis today, Huff said, and added: "Other mines of the company will be opened on the open-shop basis as the demand for coal increases."

The seven mines of the Victor-American company, which for five years have been operated under union labor, were closed by the nation-wide suspension of work order of the United Mine Workers of America on April 1.

RUM-RUNNERS AND GAMBLERS OF CHICAGO CLASH; LOOK FOR REPRISALS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

The police are searching for "Sailor" Friedman, Max Miller and "Red" Cohn. Herschle Miller, brother of the man being sought, and "Nails" Morton, were recently acquitted of the murder of two detective sergeants.

MISS SOUDERS SAYS HEALTH IS NOW PERFECT

Los Angeles Girl Says She Can't Describe the Joy She Felt When She Found Tanlac Was Overcoming Her Long Suffering.

"It was lucky for me that I took father's advice and tried Tanlac, for it has restored me to perfect health," said Miss Edith Souders, 619 East Washington St., Los Angeles, Cal.

"I shudder even now when I think of the two years' misery I spent as a result of stomach trouble. Actually, I used to dread for meal time to come around as I knew no matter how careful I was about my diet, I would suffer the greatest distress afterwards.

"I just can't begin to describe the joy I felt when after I had been taking Tanlac a short time I realized that I had at last found just what I needed. It soothed and toned up my stomach right from the start and now I eat anything I want and am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. I doubt if I ever had as much energy and strength as I have right now."

TEACHERS OPEN BIG CONVENTION

Educators in Annual Session at Pasadena

Crown City Takes Interest in Bond Election

Sisterhood Opens State Meet This Afternoon

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, April 10.—"Education of the minor, part-time schooling and adult education are the three battle fronts upon which high schools must advance against illiteracy," is the way A. C. Olney, State commissioner of secondary schools, sounded the keynote of the State convention of high-school principals, which opened here this afternoon at the high school for a five-day meeting. More than 500 high-school principals and school executives are assembled in the gathering under the auspices of the State Department of Education.

Mr. Olney in urging a simultaneous attack declared a great need existed for leadership. High school principals, he said, are the leaders in education today. "They must go forward or quit," he suggested in his statement on the training of minors.

"Hitherto, attacks have been against one objective at a time," said Mr. Olney, "but the time has come now that we must proceed against all—namely, the three objectives."

Mr. Olney in speaking on the junior high school said that this was of primary importance and that the commissioner of secondary schools had been authorized to appoint a State-wide committee of California's most eminent educators to consider the content of the junior high-school course of study.

Gov. Stephens is scheduled on the speaking program as well as Will C. Wood, State superintendent of public instruction. John Franklin West, Pasadena superintendent of schools, and Principal William F. Ewing of the high school extended a hearty welcome in behalf of the Crown City to the visiting educators.

Tonight Sid Foster of Manual Arts High School, Los Angeles, gave a paper on "Organization of Athletic Teams," and an entertainment was presented by the California "Tech" Glee Club. The Oral English class of Glendale High school participated with Rufus Mead, principal of the John Muir School of this city, presiding. Miss E. M. Willis, L. Friedman and C. F. Scott are among those registered from Los Angeles.

DRUM UP VOTES

The grand Army drum corps will visit all parts of the city tomorrow with their fifes and drums to remind voters that it is the day for Pasadena "to forward march" by passing the $3,236,500 municipal bond issue at the polls. A statement reviewing eight separate propositions which will be outlined on the ballot by City Manager C. W. Koiner, in which he pleaded for city-wide support, featured the closing moments of a several weeks' campaign. The Chamber of Commerce and a score of civic organizations and improvement associations have openly endorsed Pasadena's first pubic improvement bond project.

With local newspapers supporting the bond issue, little opposition has developed with the single exception of some strong sentiment being shown by citizens against the bond parcel relating to park improvements for the city and the Arroyo Seco. For this particular item $920,500 is the sum proposed. The other issues are water works, $175,000; sewage disposal, $412,000; isolation hospital, $12,000; comfort stations, $25,000; street openings, $825,900; fire department, $117,000, and a municipal auditorium, $750,000.

SISTERHOOD MEETS

Beginning tomorrow afternoon more than 200 women from different parts of the State will assemble at the California P.E.O. Sisterhood convention which will be held at the Hotel Raymond. Delegates arrived today and the sessions will run into Thursday. Aside from business a formal reception and entertainment for heads of organizations, Wednesday night, will be one of the special features of the meeting. Mrs. T. W. Bishop of South Pasadena and Mrs. O. P. Owen of Pasadena head the committee of arrangements.

FOR SERIOUS CRIME

Fresno Girl Said to Be Victim of Vicious Attack

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FRESNO, April 10.—Complaints charging Lee Orme and George M. Buckman of Fresno and H. L. Clark of San Francisco, 19-year-old youths, with a statutory offense following what police describe as a rival of the infamous gangster cases of 1920, and involving three young Fresno girls, were filed in Judge Graham's court late this afternoon.

The three youths are being held in the County Jail, and have made a complete confession concerning the "party," police said today.

Vito Cassano, a rancher, who is said to have furnished liquor for the party, was arrested last night and is being held for violation of the new county prohibition ordinance.

According to confessions obtained by Dist.-Atty. B. W. Gearhart, the party began here Saturday night, following a dance, and culminated early the following morning after an automobile which they used became stalled at a schoolhouse between here and Clovis.

It is said that but one of the 15-year-old girls was attacked by the trio after she became too intoxicated to resist.

The investigation of the case started yesterday morning after the mother of one of the girls informed the police that her daughter had failed to return home until Sunday morning.

NAVY MEN APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Reserve Officers Say Grave Injustice is Contemplated in Recent Ruling

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, April 10.—Protesting vehemently against their being summarily discharged from the service, a group of naval officers, representing brother officers in the Naval Reserve, have sent a strongly-worded communication to members of Congress, it was learned today.

This is the second protest of the kind sent to Washington, the communication today supplementing one that went forward to the White House Sunday from the "Fighting 59," a number of reserve officers, headed by Commander William D. Prideaux of the transport Rappahannock.

Congressional relief also is demanded by another group of Naval Reserve officers attached to the aviation service, many of whom have been in the Navy as long as fifteen years. This latter action followed the announcement that seventeen aviators attached to the air squadrons, Pacific Fleet and the North-Island air station, were to be retired before June 30. Nearly all of these flyers served during the late war.

The protest sent forward today sets forth that "The summary discharge of these officers, at a time when it will be impossible to obtain employment, is an act of injustice wholly out of keeping with the ideas of the republic and a discrimination which no man can justify, and which finds no sanction or approval in the hearts and minds of our countrymen."

The protests from the "Fighting 59," and the reserve officers have created a sensation in local naval circles. It is said that this is the first time in the history of the Navy that anything of the kind has occurred and the outcome is being awaited with keen interest.

Unless the protests were sent through Admiral Eberle or with his approval, it was pointed out by disinterested persons, that a serious breach of naval discipline has been committed.

MYSTERY IN MAN'S RETURN

Santa Ana Book-keeper is Home, Unable to Tell Story of His Wanderings

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, April 10.—Absent since March 15, when he started for Los Angeles and strangely disappeared, Maurice Siddoway, formerly book-keeper in a garage here and married, staggered upon the porch of his parents' home here last night, utterly exhausted. He bore marks of blows and unknown hardships, which he has endured the last month. But instead of solving the mystery, Siddoway's return only heightened it, for he lapses at times into unconsciousness and can give only an incoherent account of his wanderings.

From his mutterings and disconnected statements, it is gathered that he was as far north as the Oregon line, with his mind a half-blank. He tells of being in rough places, among uncouth men, in hobo camps, and on freight trains, half dazed, but with his will set upon returning to Santa Ana, where he left a wife and young baby. He walked much and did without food for days.

Yesterday, it seems, he left Los Angeles and walked the entire thirty-five miles to Santa Ana, arriving at his parents' home, 709 South Garnsey street, last night, where he stumbled upon the porch and collapsed.

His left arm and shoulder bear wounds, now healing, which physicians believe were received three weeks ago from blows or from a fall.

CONDITION IMPROVES

Boy Seriously Hurt When Automobile Turns Turtle

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, April 10.—Word from the San Antonio Hospital this evening was to the effect that Glenn Sorely 18 years old, of El Monte, has a chance of recovery. The boy was taken there last night, suffering from a basal fracture of the skull and other injuries, and believed to be in a dying condition.

His injuries were received in an accident in which his motor car turned turtle and rolled down a steep grade in San Antonio Canyon.

Sorely is said to have been driving up the canyon with another young man and to have lost control of his car on the steep grade, striking a bank and turning over. The other youth was unhurt.

SERIOUSLY BURNED

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, April 10.—Frightfully burned from head to foot, and with injuries to her lungs, Mrs. Edith Hudson, 20, of Garden Grove, was near death today at her parents' home.

Mrs. Hudson's clothes became ignited from an open gas heater last night, when crazed by pain and deaf to her husband's cries to stop, she dashed from their home and ran madly down the street.

John Hudson, the husband, pursued her in a frantic effort to render aid, but did not overtake her until she fell exhausted, her clothing burned from her body, when he carried her into their home and summoned a physician.

Mrs. Hudson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Simons of Garden Grove, and is the mother of a 3½-year-old baby.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, April 10.—Charged with attempted murder, Lela Jones, 34 years old, colored janitress at Hoyt's Theater on the Pike, is in the City Jail this afternoon, while her husband, shot through the head, is in a critical condition at the Seaside Hospital.

Emmitt Jones, 37 years old, the husband, is also employed at Hoyt's Theater, where the shooting took place. Jones, who is known as the Beau Brummel of the local negro colony, was shot by his wife after he attacked her with the handle of a vacuum cleaner, she told the police.

She says she shot in self-defense. The bullet entered Jones's cheek near the nose and lodged in the neck just under the right ear. Dr. F. D. Sweet, who is attending the man, says he has a chance to recover providing complications do not set in.

Mrs. Jones made no attempt to escape after the shooting, quietly surrendering to the police when they arrived.

DESPERATE BURGLAR

Bound and gagged, Frances Calvert, 12 years old, of 1130 East First street, was held a prisoner for fifteen minutes in her own home today by a 19-year-old burglar while he ransacked the house.

The girl finally succeeded in loosening her bonds and fled from the building screaming for aid. Neighbors responded, but the intruder fled in an automobile before they could reach him.

Answering a call to the door the girl was confronted with a stranger carrying a large can. He asked if he could have some water for the radiator of his car. The kitchen sink proving too small for so large a can, the little girl showed him to the bathroom, where the youth filled the can with water and then left the house. A few seconds later he knocked again and explained that he thought he had left a radiator cap in the house.

He walked into the bathroom again as though seeking the cap and as the girl followed him he attacked her, stifled her screams with a towel. He bound her hands behind her and then tied her feet together, using towels, carried her into a bedroom and flung her upon a bed. He then proceeded to ransack the house at his leisure, being absent from the bedroom about fifteen minutes, according to the police. Returning to the bedroom he was going through a chiffonier when Miss Calvert succeeded in freeing herself and fled through the rear door of the dwelling. The intruder rushed out the front door, jumped into a car and made his escape.

The Long Beach Improvement Company, today purchased for a reported consideration of $35,000, the handsome residence of the late Mrs. E. M. Anderson at 2200 East Ocean Boulevard. Mrs. Anderson was the wife of an eastern millionaire manufacturer. Her death occurred about a year ago, resulting in large bequests to religious and educational institutions as well as to private individuals.

Located on the south side on Ocean Boulevard, fronting on the ocean, the Anderson home long has been known as one of the show places of the city.

FRUIT SEASON ON

Packing-Houses Near Porterville Running Full Blast

PORTERVILLE, April 11.—Porterville's Valencia season will be in full blast within a few days, according to W. E. Sprott, secretary-manager of the Tulare County Fruit Growers' Exchange. All of the packing-houses in this section, with the exception of the Tule River, Terra Bella, Sunnyside and Zante houses, will run.

Sunland, Strathmore, Grand View, Terra Bella, Plano and Porterville Association houses are now operating and report a good run of fruit. Frank A. Gebringe, secretary of the Porterville Chamber of Commerce, which operated a free employment bureau in conjunction with other chamber affairs, reports that calls for pickers and packers exceed help of that class. This scarcity of orange laborers is thought to be partly due to the fact that the orange season opened in this section about two weeks earlier than usual.

BOY PLUNGES TO HIS DEATH

Ontario Lad Falls Over Rocky Mountain Cliff

Accident Occurs in Canyon Near Ontario

Coroner's Inquest Places No Responsibility

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, April 10.—Plunging sixty feet over a sheer rock cliff above the second falls in Stoddard's Canyon, to the north of Ontario, when a piece of rotted wooden ladder, which he grabbed for support, gave way, Avrell Nevin Davidson, 13-year-old son of Mrs. Emily Norwood, 546 Nocta street, was instantly killed late yesterday afternoon.

The boy, in company with his younger brother, Pangborn Davidson, had climbed up over the falls, which make two leaps of about sixty feet each, and was starting on up, when the staff on which he was leaning broke. Avrell, according to his brother, who was but a few feet distant, grabbed a nearby ladder and would have succeeded in saving himself had not the ladder given way. The lad fell in a shallow pool at the foot of the fall's first drop.

Mack E. Hall and J. Forrest Cochran, who were with another party climbing over the falls and some twenty feet below the Davidson boys, pulled Avrell from the water ten minutes after the accident, it being necessary for them to descend to the foot of the falls and make their way slowly back over the steep rock bank to the spot where the boy lay. All attempts to resuscitate him proved of no avail.

Miss Annie Davis and Miss Eudora Fredendall, who were in the party with Hall and Cochran, hurried back to camp for ropes and it was with great difficulty that the body was brought down, wrapped in blankets and on a crude stretcher.

Besides his mother and the brother who was with him, young Davidson is survived by another brother, Lewis S. Davidson, just discharged from the Army after several years' service; three sisters, Mrs. Annie Burns of Oklahoma, and the Misses Rosa and Elizabeth Davidson, at home.

The Coroner's jury this afternoon returned a verdict of accidental death following the inquest before Coroner J. B. Hanna. While it was established that death was due to the breaking of the ladder, no responsibility was fixed as it was established at the inquest that signs in the canyon warned people to use the ladders at their own risk. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from Draper's chapel, with the Christian Science Church in charge. Burial will be in Bellevue Cemetery.

Frost Injures Crops on Kern County Farms

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BAKERSFIELD, April 10.—Frosts which visited Kern county Sunday morning and this morning worked considerable damage on cantaloupe and potato crops and young vine rootings, according to unofficial report here received from different farming districts today. The extent of the damage has not been ascertained, but will be known soon.

Horticultural Commissioner Harold Pomeroy is making a survey in various districts to determine what losses were caused. Reports from Arvin and the Weed Patch said that vine rootings had been set back in growth approximately eighteen inches by the freeze, many of the vines having attained this growth being frozen.

It was considered probable that the cantaloupes in the Delano and McFarland districts suffered from the cold, in which case replanting will be necessary in several instances. There are 2000 acres of cantaloupes in the Delano district, 300 acres at Wasco and 1200 in the Weed Patch, according to latest estimates.

It is not thought that the lettuce crop in the Delano district was seriously damaged by the freeze, although the outer leaves of the plants may have been damaged. In this event, the outside leaves can be cut off of the plants without reducing their value materially, it was said.

Young vines in the Arvin, Weed Patch, Delano, McFarland, Wasco and Shafter districts may have been injured, it was feared.

There are 2000 acres of potatoes in the Shafter district that are thought to have felt the effects of the frosts, though not seriously.

HEART TROUBLE FATAL TO RIVERSIDE VETERAN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, April 10.—J. A. Stockman, for the last three years manager here for the Pacific Telephone Company, died of heart disease at midnight last night at the Y.M.C.A. Arrangements for the funeral services have not been made.

Mr. Stockman left the Elks' Club at 11 o'clock, explaining that he was not feeling well. Later he telephoned for a physician, who arrived too late to render aid.

Stockman was a member of the Rotary Club and prominent in the local post of the American Legion. During the war he was a lieutenant in the Four Hundred and Seventh Telegraph Battalion, serving overseas.

Gordon was charged with having deliberately lied during his trial on a bad check charge last November. He was alleged to have declared the bad check in question was given him by S. H. Morgan, in the presence of several men, who came into court and denied any such information.

"CHINA DICK" IS REAL PIONEER

Has Lived in Phoenix for Forty-seven Years

To be Present at Coming Celebration

Capt. Harry Wheeler Seeks Sheriff's Star

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, April 10. — One of the notable old-timers present at the Arizona Pioneers Association meeting will be Dick Louie, locally known as "Mayor of Chinatown," or as "China Dick." For several years he has been a merchant of a substantial sort, ranking as the leader in his race in this city.

Dick is 70 years old, fifty of which have been spent in Arizona and forty-seven in Phoenix. He came from China when only 19 years old. The next year he moved to the silver mining camp of Signal, near the famous McCracken mine in southern Mojave county, where he established himself as a laundryman. When the mining company become involved in litigation and the camp closed, he drifted to the new town of Phoenix, to make his permanent residence.

Dick has a wide acquaintance among the pioneers and remembers vividly such episodes of frontier life as the double lynching on the Phoenix plaza in 1879. Despite his long residence, he still is Chinese in dress and habit, though his English is fluent.

WOULD WEAR STAR

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DOUGLAS, April 10.—Capt. Harry S. Wheeler has announced his candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Cochise county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election in September. Much of his life has been spent in public service. In territorial days he was captain of Arizona Rangers. In 1912 he was elected Sheriff of this county and twice was re-elected. In his third term he resigned to take a commission as captain of cavalry and was sent abroad, returning as a witness and defendant in the Bisbee deportation trial. It was in his name officially, that measures repressive of the I.W.W. were taken in Bisbee. Because of this, Wheeler has had much opposition from the radical wing of his party and there is expectation that his aspiration this year will have far from smooth sailing.

ORDER IS REVOKED

By order of the President of Mexico, there has been annulment of the State order closing the town of Agua Prieta, across the border, at 10 p.m. and all day on Saturday and Sunday. The town hereafter will be open at all times till 12 midnight.

TWO SUMMER SCHOOLS

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TUCSON, April 10.—The University of Arizona will have two summer schools this year. One, of six weeks, will be at Bisbee, starting June 12, this in connection with the Bisbee schools. The other, starting June 19, will be at the Northern Arizona Normal School at Flagstaff. Credits on university courses are to be secured at either school.

Fleet's "Jinx" Hits Deadman Island Rocks

Inbound from the outer harbor shortly after midnight yesterday, steamer No. 1 from the dreadnaught New York ran aground on the rocks of Deadman's Island at the entrance to the Los Angeles Harbor channel and badly damaged her bow below the water line.

The fifty-foot craft carried only the four members of her crew at the time, none of whom was injured. A motor sailer from the New York was dispatched to the scene and stood by until high tide yesterday morning, when the steamer, temporarily repaired, was pulled free and towed back to the New York. The damaged craft was hoisted on board just before the dreadnaught stood out with the Pacific Fleet for long-range gunnery rehearsals.

The New York's steamer No. 1 is known among sailors of the Pacific Fleet as the "jinx boat," having figured in four accidents during the last three years. The craft last October rammed and sank the U.S.S. Camden's motor sailer in midchannel near the Fifth-street landing at Los Angeles Harbor.

ROSICRUCIANS' WINE NOT TO BE RELEASED

PROHIBITION COMMISSIONER UPHOLDS THE ACTION OF STATE DIRECTOR

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—Samuel F. Rutter, prohibition director for California, announced today receipt of a telegram from Prohibition Commissioner Haynes sustaining his refusal to turn over 4000 gallons of wine to the Holy Order of Rosicrucians and forbidding wineries in California to deliver them liquor.

Rutter said that Theodore A. Bell, the attorney who appealed to Washington on behalf of the Rosicrucians, told him he intended to take the case into the courts. Rutter's action was on the ground that the alleged use of wine by the organization for sacramental purposes was not bona fide.

The Hound of the Baskervilles

By A. Conan Doyle

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS INSTALLMENTS.

A legend of evil has for many generations hung over Baskerville Hall, in the midst of the gloomy moorlands of Devonshire; ever since Hugo Baskerville, a "wild, Godless man," met death under the fangs of a monstrous, diabolical black hound. This strange curse has been newly brought to mind in the death of Sir Charles Baskerville, whose body has been found with the face distorted as by fear, and near by the footprints of a gigantic dog. Dr. James Mortimer, a friend of Sir Charles, who has come to London to greet Henry Baskerville, sole heir to the title and estate, consults Sherlock Holmes as to how he should advise the young man. When Baskerville appears he reveals that no sooner had he reached London than he received a mysterious message warning him to "Keep away from the moor," and is further mystified by the disappearance at his hotel first of one of a pair of shoes he had just bought, and next by the loss of one of an older pair, the first missing shoe being restored as strangely as it was taken. Sherlock Holmes discovers that Baskerville and Dr. Mortimer have been shadowed by a man with a black beard who had told his cabman he was Sherlock Holmes! Holmes takes a serious view of the case, and upon his advice, when young Baskerville starts for Baskerville Hall, he takes Dr. Watson, friend of Sherlock Holmes, along for company and possible protection. When they arrive they discover the neighborhood in excitement over the escape from prison of one Selden, a murderer, who is hiding somewhere on the moor. During his first night in Baskerville Hall, Dr. Watson's rest is disturbed by the sound of a woman sobbing, though Barrymore, the butler, denies that this can be so. The next day Dr. Watson meets Stapleton, a naturalist, who lives in a cottage near by with his handsome unmarried sister. Stapleton describes the perils of the Grimpen mire, of that locality which drags to death any who venture into it.

"Yes, you will find some very singular points about the moor, Dr. Watson. Oh, excuse me an instant! It is surely Cyclopides."

A small fly or moth had fluttered across our path, and in an instant Stapleton was rushing with extraordinary energy and speed in pursuit of it. To my dismay the creature flew straight for the great mire, and my acquaintance never paused for an instant, bounding from tuft to tuft behind it, his green net waving in the air. His gray clothes and jerky zigzag, irregular progress made him not unlike some huge moth himself. I was standing watching his pursuit with a mixture of admiration for his extraordinary activity and fear lest he should lose his footing in the treacherous mire, when I heard the sound of steps, and turning around found a woman near me upon the path.

I could not doubt that this was the Miss Stapleton of whom I had been told, since ladies of any sort must be few upon the moor, and I remembered that I had heard some one describe her as being a beauty. The woman who approached me was certainly that, and of a most uncommon type. There could not have been a greater contrast between brother and sister, for Stapleton was neutral tinted, with light hair and gray eyes, while she was darker than any brunette whom I have seen in England—slim, elegant and tall. She had a proud, finely cut face, so regular that it might have seemed impassive were it not for the sensitive mouth and the beautiful dark, eager eyes. With her perfect figure and elegant dress she was, indeed, a strange apparition upon a lonely moorland path. Her eyes were on her brother as I turned, and then she quickened her pace toward me. I had raised my hat, and was about to make some explanatory remark, when her own words turned all my thoughts into a new channel.

"Go back!" she said. "Go straight back to London, instantly."

I could only stare at her in stupid surprise. Her eyes blazed at me, and she tapped the ground impatiently with her foot.

"Why should I go back?" I asked.

"I cannot explain." She spoke in a low eager voice, with a curious lisp in her utterance. "But for God's sake do what I ask you. Go back and never set foot upon the moor again."

"But I have only just come."

"Man, man!" she cried. Can you not tell when a warning is for your own good? Go back to London! Start tonight! Get away from this place at all costs! Hush, my brother is coming! Not a word of what I have said. Would you mind getting that orchid for me among the mares-tails yonder? We are very rich in orchids on the moor, though, of course, you are rather late to see the beauties of the place."

Stapleton had abandoned the chase and came back to us breathing hard and flushed with his exertions.

"Halloa, Beryl!" said he, and it seemed to me that the tone of his greeting was not altogether a cordial one.

"You have introduced yourselves, I can see."

"Yes. I was telling Sir Henry that it was rather late for him to see the true beauties of the moor."

"Why, who do you think this is?"

"I imagine that it must be Sir Henry Baskerville."

"No, no," said I. "Only a humble commoner, but his friend. My name is Dr. Watson."

A flush of vexation passed over her expressive face. "We have been talking at cross purposes," said she.

"Why, you had not very much time for talk," her brother remarked, with the same questioning eyes.

"I talked as if Dr. Watson were a resident instead of being merely a visitor," said she. "It cannot much matter to him whether it is early or late for the orchids. But you will come on, will you not, and see Merripit House?"

A short walk brought us to it, a bleak moorland house, once the farm of some grazier in the old prosperous days, but now put into repair and turned into a modern dwelling. I could not but marvel at what could have brought this highly educated man and this beautiful woman to live in such a lonely place.

"Queer spot to choose, is it not?" said he, as if in answer to my thought. "And yet we manage to make ourselves fairly happy, do we not, Beryl?"

"Quite happy," said she, but there was no ring of conviction in her words.

"I had a school, said Stapleton. "It was in the north country. The work to a man of my temperament was mechanical and uninteresting, but the privilege of living with youth, of helping to mould those young minds and of impressing them with one's own character and ideals, was very dear to me. However, the fates were against us. A serious epidemic broke out in the school and three of the boys died. It never recovered from the blow, and much of my capital was irretrievably swallowed up. And yet, if it were not for the loss of the charming companionship of the boys, I could rejoice over my own misfortune, for, with my strong tastes for botany and zoology, I find an unlimited field of work here, and my sister is as devoted to nature as I am. All this, Dr. Watson, has been brought upon your head by your expression as you surveyed the moor out of our window."

"It certainly did cross my mind that it might be a little dull—less for you, perhaps, than for your sister."

"No, no, I am never dull," said she, quickly.

"We have books, we have our studies, and we have interesting neighbors. Dr. Mortimer is a most learned man in his own line. Poor Sir Charles was also an admirable companion. We knew him well, and miss him more than I can tell. Do you think that I should intrude if I were to call this afternoon and make the acquaintance of Sir Henry?"

"I am sure that he would be delighted."

"Then perhaps you would mention that I propose to do so."

I was eager to get back to my charge. The melancholy of the moor, the death of the unfortunate pony, the weird sound which had been associated with the grim legend of the Baskervilles, all these things tinged my thoughts with sadness. Then on the top of these more or less vague impressions there had come the definite and distinct warning of Miss Stapleton, delivered with such intense earnestness that I could not doubt that some grave and deep reason lay behind it. I resisted all pressure to stay for lunch, and I set off at once upon my return journey, taking the grass-grown path by which we had come.

It seems, however, that there must have been some short cut for those who knew it, for before I had reached the road I was astounded to see Miss Stapleton sitting upon a rock by the side of the track. Her face was beautifully flushed with her exertions, and she held her hand to her side.

"I have run all the way in order to cut you off, Dr. Watson," said she. "I had not even time to put on my hat. I must not stop, or my brother may miss me. I wanted to say to you how sorry I am about the stupid mistake I made in thinking that you were Sir Henry. Please forget the words I said, which have no application whatever to you."

"But I can't forget them, Miss Stapleton," said I. "I am Sir Henry's friend, and his welfare is a very close concern of mine. Tell me why it was that you were so eager that Sir Henry should return to London."

"A woman's whim, Dr. Watson. When you know me better you will understand that I cannot always give reasons for what I say or do."

"No, no. I remember the thrill in your voice. I remember the look in your eyes. Please, please, be frank with me, Miss Stapleton, for ever since I have been here I have been conscious of shadows all round me. Life has become like that great Grimpen Mire, with little green patches everywhere into which one may sink and with no guide to point the track. Tell me then what it was that you meant, and I will promise to convey your warning to Sir Henry."

An expression of irresolution passed for an instant over her face, but her eyes had hardened again when she answered me.

"You make too much of it, Dr. Watson," said she. "My brother and I were very much shocked by the death of Sir Charles. We knew him very intimately, for his favorite walk was over the moor to our house. He was deeply impressed with the curse which hung over his family, and when this tragedy came I naturally felt that there must be some grounds for the fears which he had expressed. I was distressed therefore when another member of the family came down to live here, and I felt that he should be warned of the danger which he will run. That was all which I intended to convey."

"But what is the danger?"

"You know the story of the hound?"

"I do not believe in such nonsense."

"But I do. If you have any influence with Sir Henry, take him away from a place which has always been fatal to his family. The world is wide. Why should he wish to live at the place of danger?"

"Because it is the place of danger. That is Sir Henry's nature. I fear that unless you can give me some more definite information than this it would be impossible to get him to move."

"I cannot say anything definite, for I do not know anything definite."

"I would ask you one more question, Miss Stapleton. If you meant no more than this when you first spoke to me, why should you not wish your brother to overhear what you said? There is nothing to which he, or anyone else, could object."

"My brother is very anxious to have the Hall inhabited, for he thinks that it is for the good of the poor folk upon the moor. He would be very angry if he knew that I had said anything which might induce Sir Henry to go away. But I have done my duty now and I will say no more. I must get back, or he will miss me and suspect that I have seen you. Good-by!" She turned, and had disappeared in a few minutes among the scattered boulders, while I, with my soul full of vague fears pursued my way to Baskerville Hall.

A WELL-READ MAN

"What is this weighty volume on the hall seat?" asked the visitor.

"That's pa's minute book," said little Thomas Twobble.

"His minute book?"

"Yessum. When ma tells him she'll be down in a minute pa reads two or three chapters in it."—[Birmingham Age-Herald.

SENTENCE TO STATE PRISON FARM UPHELD

CONSTITUTIONALITY ATTACK ON LAW BY WOMAN INMATE FAILS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, April 10.—The constitutionality of the act establishing the State prison farm for women and also the right of Police and Justice Courts to sentence women to the prison farm for a period not exceeding five years, today were upheld by the Third District Court of Appeals, denying the application of Betty Carley, an inmate of the farm, for a writ of habeas corpus.

Four points were urged on behalf of the petitioner in applying for the writ, as follows:

"That it was beyond the jurisdiction of the Police Court of San Francisco, where Betty Carey was arrested, to sentence her to the prison farm for an indeterminate sentence which might amount to a detention for five years; that the punishment is cruel and unusual; that the act is discriminatory in that it applied only to women, and that the legislation cannot be a general enactment to modify an ordinance of San Francisco."

Replying to this first contention, Judge J. T. Prewett of Auburn, as the justice pro tem, who wrote the opinion, declared the claim that the Police Court was without jurisdiction to sentence women to the prison farm was untenable. He cited Supreme Court cases upholding the right of Police and Justice Courts to commit minors to reformatories and he held the same right existed in the matter of sentencing women to the prison farm. He declared the purpose in view is not punishment for the offense done, but reformation to reclaim the women to society.

Being that the commitment of women to the prison farm is only for the purposes of assistance and reformation, Judge Prewett held that the incarceration cannot be regarded as cruel and unusual punishment.

Replying to the petitioner's assertion that the statute is unconstitutional in that it discriminates against women, Judge Prewett quoted from a Supreme Court decision holding that legislation may be directed to women as a class and that they may be segregated into groups or subclassed in the interests of public health, safety or morals.

GERMANY REFUSES REPARATION TERMS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, April 10.—The German reply to the note of the Reparations Commission, which fixed the conditions under which Germany would be granted a partial moratorium on her reparations payments, was received this afternoon. It is regarded in French official circles as tantamount to a refusal to comply with the conditions, although couched in conciliatory language.

The German government says that it cannot consent to the proposed control of revenues and expenditures, and that it is unable to impose additional taxes to the amount of 60,000,000,000 marks asked by the commission.

DAILY TRADE TALK

Week Before Easter Brings Tidings of Improved Conditions; Unemployment Diminishes

In some respects Holy week brings a semipause to business. Good Friday is a legal holiday in New York, and some other States, while London observes a three-day vacation. It is the spring hiatus which precedes the ordinary seasonal increase in business, although this year the improvement has antedated the great religious festival.

For several weeks the news from all sections of the country has been of a most encouraging character, and the week opens with a continuation of this condition. In Los Angeles a return to more seasonable weather had the effect yesterday of stimulating retail trade, and stores were thronged with buyers throughout the day. Clothing, millinery and Easter specialities felt the stimulus more than other lines, although important new financing was announced and the speculative markets were active.

Encouraging reports on unemployment conditions are being received. Locally there has been an increase in employment, and during the past few days a large number of men have been absorbed by the farms. There has been improvement, not only here, but also in better organized methods adopted by various communities throughout the United States to solve their own problems, and to meet the new situations brought by spring.

W. P. G. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, has placed the seal of his approval upon the convention of the National Foreign Trade Convention to be held in Philadelphia next month, and which, he says, will be of great benefit to American agriculture, commerce and industry.

FINDING FOREIGN MARKETS.

The Pacific Coast is to be well represented at this meeting, one of the most important features of which is to be an attempt to determine how to develop foreign markets for American products without in return swamping this country with goods produced abroad under lower wage and living conditions.

"We have had," said Governor Harding yesterday, "during the past two years, convincing evidence that economic reaction and trade stagnation throughout the world affect our domestic conditions disastrously, and as this fact is becoming recognized throughout the country we find a feeling that our foreign trade should be developed is confined not to the seaboard and industrial districts, but has extended throughout the great agricultural sections of the interior. We produce in this country a surplus of foodstuffs, cotton and of manufactured goods in great variety. The effect of an unsalable surplus of any commodity upon the price of the commodity is recognized by all economists, and foreign markets must be found, unless production is curtailed, which would result in further unemployment of labor and industrial and commercial stagnation."

BETTER BUSINESS

The improving status of business in widely separated centers of activity is revealed by the following exclusive information received yesterday by Trade Talk:

In Cleveland, an important ore, steel and manufacturing hub, reemployment is increasing, a survey of 100 representative plants which normally employ 500 or more men each, showing 74,711 men at work. The largest gain was in the steel industry.

Ore shipments from Lake Erie ports to the furnaces on the last month totaled 389,848 tons as against 166,000 tons the previous month. There is less ore on the docks and in the furnace yards than there was a year ago. Ore shipments have slowed up somewhat this week pending the hearing by the Interstate Commerce Commission relative to the 20 per cent decrease in rates allowed by the railroads, but revoked by the commission. The National Acme Company, manufacturers of auto parts and radio equipment, is operating close to capacity, with inquiries more numerous than at any previous time in the history of the company.

The Central Steel Company is showing production with the rolling mills working at 100 per cent capacity and the remainder of the plant at 85 per cent. The Lake Erie Bolt and Nut Company has increased its working schedule from twenty-seven hours to forty hours a week.

BREAD WAR SUBSIDES

In Kansas City evidence of the turn for the better in the financial situation is found in the fact that banks have been able to take care of the spring money requirements of the farmers, which normally require a huge sum, without heavy borrowings from the reserve bank or outside banks.

Kansas City's bread war, which was in full blast a few weeks ago, has ended and the 5-cent loaf has disappeared again. The 8-cent loaf and the 12-cent loaf have returned. Bakers deny there was any agreement as to the abandonment of the price-cutting competition.

The zinc and lead ore markets in the tri-State field have not been adversely affected by the coal strike as was anticipated. Prices are holding firm and figures for the first quarter of the year show material advances above the levels which obtained at this time in 1921.

There have been 196 new business concerns established in that city in the last year, with combined annual pay rolls of $1,483,000.

IN THE SOUTHEAST

The pre-Easter season in the Southeast has stimulated the retail trade and Atlanta advices say that while business is not all that the merchants would like, it is considerably better than a year ago. This is particularly true as to the volume but reduced prices have contributed to hold down net profits.

In women's ready-to-wear, merchants remark a decided increase in the demand for cheaper products and in many instances high-priced apparel has been reduced materially to expedite its sales.

The millinery business has been reduced in volume, but hats have been much cheaper in price.

Produce and grocery dealers regard as a healthy sign the substantial reductions in green vegetables, poultry and eggs and attendant increased demand for such products. Much garden truck is available for half what it cost a year ago, and eggs have reached the pre-war level.

Strawberries may be had in abundance throughout the district.

The significant thing in the economic status of the South today is the rise in co-operative marketing, not alone for the minor crops, such as citrus fruits, berries, peaches, but for King Cotton himself. Co-operative cotton marketing associations are being successfully begun in Mississippi, Oklahoma and Texas. The southern cotton planter is endeavoring to turn cotton from a buyers' to a sellers' market.

The disastrous years of 1920-21, when cotton fell to a lower price than in 1915, brought home to growers their impotency to make a satisfactory living under then extant conditions. The boll weevil, steadily eating its way eastward, added to their conviction that unless some better mode of marketing could be found, they had better let their fields lie fallow.

DETROIT IS BUSY

Business in the Detroit territory continues to gain momentum from week to week with improvement reported from industries not heretofore heard from. The approach of a reaction, which a few have predicted, is not indicated by anything an observer sees or hears in this field. The leading motor-car manufacturers hold their gains and the parts makers are nearing capacity production. The employment report for the week exhibits another high record for the year with an increase over the previous seven-day period of 5300 workers. Total industrial employment has reached 205,000, or 55,000 more than the total men employed at this time last year.

The market for good investment bonds is broadening daily and reflects the increased pay rolls of the last three months.

March carload shipments of all automobile manufacturers' partly estimated, including driveaways and boat shipments converted into carload equivalents, increased 32 per cent over February and were 67 per cent more than March last year. It is estimated that approximately 150,120 cars and trucks were produced by all makers in March, 1922, against 122,429 in February and 110,525 in March, 1921. Members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in the first quarter, with March partly estimated, produced 207,560 cars and trucks or 220 per cent of same period in 1921. All manufacturers reporting produced 371,798 cars and trucks in first quarter of 1922, or 162 per cent of the same period a year ago.

IN THE NORTHWEST

Japanese demand for Pacific Northwest lumber is increasing steadily and rail and water shipments for domestic cosumption are on the increase. Production in Washington and Oregon is about 10 per cent below normal. Prices for fir logs are firm, while cedar has fallen to a $20 base. Common labor in logging camps is being paid $3.25 a day.

Tire dealers report business 20 per cent better than in 1921.

BUSINESS NEWS

Investment Market Reviewed; Arizona Offers New Financing; Butter Storage Declines

Reviewing the action of the bond market during the first quarter of 1922, H. D. Martyn, of McDonnell & Co., points out that during the month of February there were comparatively few new bond issues offered to the public. This slowed the market up considerably, but nevertheless gave the dealers and investors time to study their holdings and prepare their lists for new issues. In March the market rapidly absorbed large offerings in all types of securities — government, public utilities, rails and industrials.

Two important issues of government bonds were offered, 27,000,000 Argentine 7's, due 1927 and 40,000,000 Dutch East Indies 6's due 1962. These issues were greatly over-subscribed in a nation-wide distribution as well as several other similar issues including $4,000,000 Sao Paulo 8's due 1952, and $6,000,000 Boissons (France) 6's, due 1937.

The investment demand for foreign securities payable in United States dollars is still strong and foreign governments will continue to look to the United States for new capital.

The most successful railroad bond syndicating for some time was effected through the issue of $18,000,000 Missouri Pacific First & Refunding 6's, due 1949. This issue was about eight times oversubscribed in one hour. Two other large issues were readily received. $11,000,000 Canadian National 5's, due 1925, and $10,000,000 Paris-Lyons-Mediterranean Railroad 6's, due 1958.

In the industrial field there was an offer of $45,000,000 Sinclair Oil fifteen-year 7's and also an issue of $10,000,000 Framerica Industrial Development Corporation 7½'s, due 1943. This latter issue is considered to be a forerunner of similar foreign industrial bonds.

Three public utility issues were readily oversubscribed. $14,000,000 North American Edison thirty-year 6's, due 1952; $7,000,000 Northern Ohio Traction & Light 6's, due 1947, and $3,000,000 Standard Gas & Electric Consolidated 7's, due 1937.

The ready reception of these issues clearly indicates the healthy tone of the bond market. Lower interest rates and lower yields are noticed in all classes. Call money rates and the reduction in the rediscount rate to 4½ per cent has greatly stimulated the bond market. High levels for the year were reached in all the important listed issues. The general business tone throughout the country has stimulated issues which have been lacking and as pertinent economic questions are gradually settled, the bond market should show a continual rise according to Mr. Martyn.

There is a tendency for the new investors to look for bonds bearing 7 per cent and 8 per cent coupons and to neglect the underlying issues with 4 per cent and 5 per cent coupons, but which nevertheless are on a high yield basis and have greater security. It can be expected that the holders of these underlying issues will show greater profits than the holders of the junior securities.

The majority of present issues have callable features, which the companies will take advantage of as the money market changes. The investors will then find it somewhat difficult to purchase other equally attractive securities with funds secured from the called bonds. There are, of course, exceptional call features as in the case of the Goodyear 8's of 1941, callable and payable at 120.

All of the major developments in the bond market during March have been favorable. The investing public has turned somewhat from speculating in the rapidly strengthening bond market to buying long-time investments. Old rail issues, seasoned public utilities and underlying industrial bonds are in great demand. This is due somewhat to the fact that so many holders of Liberty bonds have sold their holdings and are in the market for bonds that afford excellent security.

BOND SALES

The Citizens National Bank was the successful bidder yesterday at the sale of $25,000 Artesia School District 5½ per cent bonds, due from 1925 to 1940. The premium paid was $1625 or approximately a 4.75 per cent basis. Other bidders were: Bank of Italy, $1510.70, First National Bank of Artesia, $1471.60, National City Company, $1390, and William R. Staats Company, $1379.

An issue of $40,000 Biola School District, Fresno county, 6 per cent bonds, due from 1926 to 1945, was purchased by Stephens & Co. for a premium of $4565, or approximately a 4.80 per cent basis. The other bidders at the sale were: Bank of Italy, $4346.80, Schwabacher & Co., $4120, and William R. Staats Company, $3829.

YUMA ISSUE

A $950,000 Yuma county, Arizona, 5½ per cent highway bond issue has been bought by Blyth, Witter & Company and will be offered to the local investing public tomorrow. The bonds mature in 1956 and are noncallable. This is the second large price of Arizona county financing to come to the Los Angeles market, following the recent offering of Maricopa county bonds.

It is in Yuma county that the government's well-known Yuma reclamation project is located. A further expenditure of $5,000,000 on this work is planned by the government. A total of $10,000,000 has already been spent in reclaiming Yuma county lands. The purpose of the present bond issue is for general road improvement work in the county.

FITZWILLIAM LANDS

Hunter, Dulin & Co. yesterday offered $375,000 Fitzwilliam Lands, Inc., first mortgage 7 per cent serial gold bonds, due from 1928 to 1932, at par to yield 7 per cent. The issue is secured by a first closed mortgage on the Fitzwilliam Ranch in Fresno county, consisting of approximately 7800 contiguous acres of improved farm lands. The property as it stands at present has been appraised at $1,004,875 and with the completion of an auxiliary irrigation system now under way, this valuation should increase 50 per cent, according to the underwriters.

RIO DE JANEIRO BONDS

Over-subscription of the $13,000,000 issue of the City of Rio de Janeiro, twenty-five year, 8 per cent external secured sinking fund gold bonds was reported soon after the bonds were offered yesterday. The issue was brought out by a syndicate headed by Blair & Co. and participated in locally by E. H. Rollins & Sons, the Bank of Italy, the Security Trust and Savings Bank, and the First Securities Company. The offering price was 103 and interest. The maturity date of the issue is 1947, the bonds being redeemable at 110 from 1924 to 1931, and at 105 thereafter.

Tax Exempt Bond Profits

Do you know that—under certain circumstances, the Revenue Act of 1921, as interpreted by recent Treasury Regulations, exempts investors from paying Federal Income Tax on bond profits.

This new law enables investors to make exchanges which have hitherto been prevented by the burden of taxation.

May we send you with our compliments a copy of extracts from the Revenue Act with the Treasury Department Regulations and an explanatory letter?

LETHARGY MARKS STOCK TRADING

Trading on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday was generally lethargic and featureless. A sharp down swing in the market leaders marked the mining group. Oatman United dropped 5 cents to 53, while United Eastern continued on its downward course and closed at $1.61, a 4-cent loss. United American fell off 9 cents to 23 and Telluride declined 1 to 2¾ cents. The outstanding exception to this decline was Big Jim Consolidated which was in active demand and advanced 1 cent to 10. General Petroleum continues to approach par and closed at 99¾ yesterday, a gain of ¼. Southern California Edison common is heeding up its gradual advance and moved up ¼ to 98¾.

BANKERS' MEETING

Over 500 Southern California bankers are expected to attend the meeting of Group Five, California Bankers' Association, which will be held at the Ambassador on Saturday. The program includes a business meeting in the afternoon to be followed by a banquet at which John Moody, the well known business analyst, and George M. Reynolds, chairman of the board of the Continental & Commercial National Bank of Chicago, will be the principal speakers.

BEAN MARKET

A healthy buying market for a majority of the California varieties of beans has resulted in a general price advance during the past month, according to a market review published in the California Bean Growers, which says:

"Importations of oriental beans through the Pacific gateways have been almost nil since the first of the year, and therefore, no ill effects to the market on this account have been noted.

"A great many beans have changed ownership upon the street, due to the activity of the market. This is particularly so in the case of pinks and red kidneys. Very few growers appear to have any stocks left.

"The least active interest has been shown in the case of Mexican Reds, for which no steady firm demand has yet been started, but as the other varieties are moving gradually Mexican Reds should come into demand and reach a price that will justify owners in selling."

OPEN BRANCHES

Two new branches of the California Bank will be opened this week according to A. M. Chaffey, president of that institution. One is located in the City Market at Nos. 945-7 South San Pedro street and the other on the northwest corner of First street and Vermont avenue. The two new branches will bring the total number of California Bank locations to twenty-seven.

WANT-AD SUPREMACY

THE Times carries more Want-ads per day than any other newspaper in Los Angeles, while on Sunday it leads the second by more than 2,000 lines.

All Want-Ad readers are attracted by this outstanding variety of offerings; in fact, it is well established that the habit of what newspaper a man subscribes to be determined by WHAT TIMES when seeking Want-Ad information.

SOME ONE ELSE
HAS TAKEN THE LOSS
ON THESE CARS.

The first depreciation, which usually amounts to several hundred dollars, occurs when a "new car" becomes a used car by being driven out of the salesroom.

In the case of these cars this loss has been shouldered by the other fellow.

See these if you are looking for an auto that will be worth every dollar you pay for it.

CLIMATE DOESN'T CHANGE

The climates of the world have not changed in the last ten years, nor in the last ten centuries, for that matter, says Charles E. Talman of the United States Weather Bureau, in the Mentor Magazine. "Old-fashioned winters, the kind we don't get now," have always been talked about. Even in Ben Franklin's day pamphlets were published describing changes in the climate of the United States. It is human nature to remember the exceptional seasons, such as the winter of 1917-1918, and compare every season with them, thus giving rise to the belief that climates change, says Talman, whereas daily checks at 30,000 weather bureaus throughout the world show that the average weather condition has remained unchanged for hundreds of years.

Checkers on Eight-Foot Board

Checkers in the open air on a board eight feet square, with checkers from seven to twelve pounds in weight, was the proposal made to the park board at a recent meeting. The suggestion comes from the Vancouver Checkers Club, which is eager to have this unique form of mental relaxation and physical exercise established in Stanley Park.

"It is a popular game in Scotland, particularly in Port Glasgow," one of the members of the club informed the board, "and we believe it will prove a success."

The surface of the "board," he added, could be of iron or concrete, and the cost would not exceed $200. Arrangements could be made for a number of enthusiasts to view the game. The request will be considered.—[Vancouver Province.

Champions the Homely Man.

Do homely men make the best husbands?

The merits of the homely husband was upheld by Judge Theodore J. Richter, who has tied and untied hundreds of matrimonial knots.

The handsome man is more likely to become a litigant in divorce proceedings, not because his good looks make him worse, but because they are likely to make his wife jealous, he said. Her jealousy leads to mistrust.

The handsome man, who is constantly being nagged by a jealous wife finally gets tired or protesting his innocence. He may think that as long as his fidelity is questioned he might as well go astray.

Judge Richter said that handsomeness in a man is often a handicap. Good looks make him conceited and cause him to attach too much importance to the incidentals of his personality rather than upon actual accomplishment. — [Detroit News.

Of Course John Was Spoofing

The late John Kendricks Bangs came upon a friend one afternoon in a field taking photographs. His camera was pointed at a haymow, and the scene, while one to delight a person of keen artistic sensibility, apparently did not strike the humorist as anything out of the ordinary.

"Hallo, Rudolph," he remarked, "what in the world are you taking there?"

"Just you come over here and look at the reflection on my ground glass and you will see," said his friend with much fervor. Bangs ventured over and put his head under the cloth.

"Ah, now I see," he said, gravely. "The haymow is standing upside down."—[Boston Transcript.

POSTAL HISTORY BEING TAUGHT

Text-book Compiled for Use in Schools

Cyrus the Elder Started First Service

Had Mounted Couriers to Transport Mail

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MINNEAPOLIS, April 10. — The earliest known postal system was that of Cyrus the Elder, King of Persia, in 599 B. C., according to the postoffice manual prepared here for use as a text-book in the schools of the United States. The manual was compiled by Postmaster Purdy of Minneapolis and a group of specialists, with the encouragement of Postmaster-General Hays and his successor, Dr. Hubert Work, in the belief that the diffusion of information about the postoffice would save the government millions of dollars annually. Besides explaining the functions of the postoffice and most efficient ways of using it, the manual outlines the history of postal service.

MOUNTED COURIERS

King Cyrus, according to the manual, maintained mounted couriers to dispatch messages from post to post. The book then relates that similar methods prevailed among the Romans during the time of Augustus, B.C. 31, and later in France under Charlemagne in 807, A.D. The first actual letter-post for commercial purposes, however, it says, appears to have originated early in the twelfth century and a century later, the University of Paris established an efficient postal system. China also maintained a postal system at an early date, about 1240.

Inception of the American postoffice came with its earliest settlement, the book narrates. It passed from the coffee-house letter depository to actual carrier when legislation was passed in Massachusetts in 1639 and Virginia in 1657. Under the later legislation, a house would be designated by colonial law as the appointed place "for all letters which are brought beyond the seas or are to be sent thither." the owner of which would receive a penny for every letter, but who must "answer all miscarriages through his own neglect." The colonial law of Virginia provided that every planter must keep a messenger to convey dispatches as they arrived, to the next plantation, "on pain for forfeiting a hogshead of tobacco for default."

GRADUALLY ESTABLISHED

Gradually a postal service was established along the coast between the several colonies, and in 1672 there was a monthly post from New York to Boston. In 1692 a private enterprise was granted to get up posts in North America to Thomas Neal, an dthe postal affairs of the colonies were thus conducted until 1710, when the postal service of the British Empire was consolidated into one organization, with new York its chief American office.

An early act of the Continental Congress established postoffices and routes from Falmouth, Me., to Savannah, Ga., the manual continues, and in 1737 Franklin was appointed Postmaster at Philadelphia, and the first acting Postmaster-General in this country. In 1758 he was appointed deputy Postmaster-General for the colonies, which office he held until 1774, when he was dismissed because of his active sympathy with the colonists in their quarrel with the mother country.

CASH POSTAGE

For a while following everything was in confusion, but in July, 1775, the Continental Congress appointed Franklin the first American Postmaster-General, to manage the postal service throughout the colonies. Then postage stamps were unknown and postage was paid in cash.

The text-book tells of the changes brought about when in 1834 letters were carried by steam railway. Four years later, the railroads were declared by law as postroutes and in 1840 the traveling railway postoffice came into being. In 1847, use of stamps was authorized by the government, and in 1855 the prepayment of postage made compulsory.

Names Receiver for Holtville Ranch Company

U. S. Dist. Judge Bledsoe yesterday appointed John H. Streeter of Holtville as receiver for the Holtville Ranch Company, under a bond of $30,000, with instructions to make an inventory and appraisement of the property and a schedule of all the claims filed against it within the next thirty days.

The action was taken in the suit brought by George E. Brannan of Chicago, who asserts in his petition that he is the owner of 4500 shares of the preferred stock of the corporation, and 80,000 shares of the common stock. He also sets out that he is a creditor of the company to the extent of $17,500, and that the incumbrances amount to $53,700. It is a friendly suit and uncontested.

They also offered 7 cents a pound for white sturgeon, sockeyes and blue-backs. These prices will be submitted to the league for acceptance. The prices offered today are slightly higher than those prevailing last season.

EDISON ACTS FOR DAM ON COLORADO

Power Commission Says Application Filed for "Comprehensive" Project

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO, April 10.—Definite information that the Southern California Edison Company has filed, in its own name, application with the Federal Power Commission for a comprehensive project on the Colorado River, including a proposed dam at Diamond Creek, came to the Imperial Irrigation District officials today.

Following charges by Congressman Phil D. Swing that the Edison company was "seeking to obstruct the Boulder Canyon dam project by gaining private control of a power project on the Colorado River," the information received today, in a letter from the Federal Power Commission, is regarded as authentic.

NO ALARM FELT

However, no alarm is felt over the situation as the power commission declares that the application has been referred to the Colorado River Commission for comment and that action is suspended until such comment is forthcoming.

The letter from the commission contains the surprising information that James B. Girand, reported to be a Southern California Edison Company agent, already has a permit for a power project at Diamond Creek, which is a vital part of the Colorado River basin, adjacent to the proposed Boulder dam site.

The Federal Power Commission advises the irrigation district that Girand obtained a temporary permit in 1915 and that this was renewed in 1921. Girand has now filed application to proceed with construction of the power project at Diamond Creek.

Girand "is willing to accept provisions to the effect that he will not store water so as to interfere with the interests of irrigation lower down the river, nor will he object to the diversion of water for irrigation purposes from the river above his dam," the letter advises. The Federal Power Commission continues: "His (Girand's) project provides for the impounding of about 200,000 acre feet, or approximately 1-125th of the storage capacity of the proposed Boulder Canyon dam. So it is apparent that his project can have no appreciable effect on the proposed Boulder Canyon dam."

However, irrigation district members cannot feel entirely secure with both Girand and the Edison company competing for power projects so near the Boulder Canyon project. They say and point out that, while Girand declares he will not interfere with interests of irrigation, he specifies irrigation particularly and not power. The sale of power would be the chief means of maintenance of the Boulder Canyon project and private competition in that locality would jeopardize the great public project, members of the board said today.

The irrigation district's delegation in Washington will be advised of the situation and asked to make a careful investigation of the effect of Girand's present permit and to continue a steadfast protest.

Postal Savings by Californians Are on Decline

Although the postal receipts of the Los Angeles office are increasing every month, the postal savings deposits are decreasing, and the sale of treasury savings certificates are not as great as they should be, says a statement issued yesterday. The condition seems to be general over California, it is stated.

During the month of January, 1921, the total sales of treasury savings certificates in this State were but $67,735, while for the same period Oregon sold $95,159 worth, and Washington State sales were $328,546.

Treasury savings certificates may be purchased at any classified station or postoffice, and Postmaster O'Brien announces that officials will be glad to furnish information at any time. A $25 certificate may be purchased for $20, $100 for $80, and a $1000 certificate for $800. These certificates mature in five years from date of sale, and draw 4¼ per cent interest compounded semiannually.

CASE IS SETTLED

The $25,000 damage suit of Mrs. Elizabeth McMullin against the Abbot Kinney Company, Church & Frier and the Grant Safety Racing Coaster, for injuries she received in a Venice concession July 8, 1921, has been settled out of court. This announcement was made in Judge McLucas's court yesterday, where the case was called for trial. The suit was stricken from the calendar.

GUILTY OF BURGLARY

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO, April 10. — Roberto Diaz, accused of a daylight burglary, pleaded guilty today before Superior Judge Cole and asked for probation. Diaz is alleged to have broken into a local store and to have stolen a quantity of goods. Jim Herrera, who was arrested with him, had previously pleaded guilty and asked for sentence.

SOUTH DAKOTA DONATES SLAB

Washington Monument Gets Another Stone

All but Four States Now Are Represented

Each Piece Bears Proper Inscription

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Word has just been received from the Governor of South Dakota by the Washington National Monument Association that a huge granite slab will soon be shipped here to be placed in the Washington monument. With the installation of this slab, every State in the Union with the exception of Arizona, North Dakota, Idaho and New Mexico, will be represented. No date for the dedication has been decided, but it was said to be likely that April 30, anniversary of Washington's inauguration, would be selected.

ALL SAME SIZE

In accordance with a custom established when the monument was dedicated, Feb. 21, 1885, every State slab sealed into position in the interior of the great shaft has been of uniform size, and the granite block now ready for shipment to Washington by the State of South Dakota will measure four by six feet, with a thickness of two feet. No stone may be placed in the monument unless it has been provided for by the Legislature of a State, and the States have had the privilege of chiseling a patriotic inscription or coat of arms on the slabs sent to the monument commission. In the majority of instances coats of arms have been chosen.

Senator Sterling, of South Dakota, will be asked by the Monument Association to arrange for the dedication of the slab from his State. One member of Congress who especially will be asked to participate in the ceremonies will be Uncle Joe Cannon, who was said today to be the only living member of Congress who was present at the ceremonies in 1885 when the monument was dedicated.

MARBLE AND GRANITE

The Washington monument was constructed of pure white marble and granite, and the tapering design of graceful proportions reaches skyward, 555 feet, and looks down upon the city founded by and named for Washington. The corner-stone was laid July 4, 1848, and the topmost stone of the pyramid was set Dec. 6, 1884.

During the year since the completion of the massive shaft, State after State has contributed a slab in honor of the memory of the Father of His Country. The monument association with untiring devotion to its task of rounding up every State, has never ceased its demand upon the various State Legislatures.

Frequently, it was said, one Legislature would be on the verge of appropriating for a slab when it would die and the work of convincing its successor of the worthiness of the movement would have to be done all over again.

Of the remaining States to be heard from, it was said, today, by Frederick L. Harvey, the association secretary, that all but Arizona had expressed willingness to donate a slab.

Expert to Tell Ad Club About Motor Trucking

"Transportation is so essential to the life of a community that anything that will extend it, cheapen it or make it more efficient must command the most serious consideration of every thinking man," said Lewis H. Smith of Fresno, attorney for the California Motor Transport Association, who arrived at the Rosslyn Hotel last night.

"While it is of more direct concern to the shipper, yet the consumer, who always pays ultimately the cost of transportation, is the one most vitally interested and yet the one who gives it scarcely a passing thought. The shipper, therefore, must do his thinking for him.

"That the shipper has come to realise the economical value of motor-truck transportation is demonstrated by the fact that practically 1,000,000 trucks are now engaged in the service of transportation.

"Experience has also shown that capacity loads must be carried if the greatest efficiency and economy in transportation is to be maintained, by which I mean the maximum capacity commensurate with the strength and life of the highways.

Mr. Smith will address the Ad Club at the Alexandria at noon today on "Problems of Transportation."

SUICIDE NOTE TELLS OF LEAP FROM YALE

PLAN REVEALED IN LETTER MAILED ON SHIP TO RELATIVES HERE

Apparent confirmation of the belief that Mrs. Marjorie Hillyard, grief-stricken widow of Dave Hillyard, professional ball-player, committed suicide Friday night by leaping overboard from the steamer Yale, was received yesterday by the girl's relatives. A letter written by her and mailed on the steamer, was received in which she explained her act.

Mrs. Hillyard was missed from the passengers of the Yale last Saturday when the steamer docked at San Francisco. The letter yesterday explained that she could no longer endure life without her husband and had chosen that means of ending her life.

She had been living with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hillyard at 2148 Thompson street. On Friday morning she left home to attend business college and told her relatives she would probably attend a party that evening and might not be home. The next word from her came in news dispatches from San Francisco telling of her disappearance from the steamer.

WASHINGTON, April 10. General defense of the radical raids of 1919 and 1920, conducted by order of Atty.-Gen. Palmer, was made in a report by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, chairman of a Senate judiciary investigating subcommittee, made public today, with a supplemental report by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, attacking vigorously the raids and challenging conclusions of the Sterling report.

GEMS HELD BY POLICE DISAPPEAR

Earrings Missing After Death of Officer Who Placed Them in Safe

Disappearance of a pair of diamond and platinum earrings valued at more than $2000 from the safe in the property room at Central Police Station brought an all-embracing investigation within the police department yesterday. The earrings, which were reported gone by Property Clerk William Matuskiwiz, are believed to have been taken from the safe last Sunday.

As far as could be learned yesterday by police detectives, the jewelry was taken from the safe not more than twelve hours after Detective Roy Shy, who had placed the jewelry in the custody of Property Clerk Matuskiwiz, died from injuries resulting from an automobile accident.

A second complication faced by the police department is that the earrings are claimed by Mrs. T. W. Millen, 651 West Sixty-third street, and Mrs. Frances Matthews, and action has been filed in the Superior Court by the latter for claim and delivery of the jewelry. Chief of Police Everington and Mrs. Millen are named in her complaint.

Although no trace of the gems have been found at a late hour last night and no one was under direct suspicion of having looted the police safe, investigating detectives declared that the jewelry must have been taken by some one who knew that Detective Shy was charged on police books with the earrings and that his death would probably result in the jewelry being called for at once.

Records at Central Police Station show that the missing valuables, with a quantity of other jewelry, were seized by Detectives Shy, Simpson and Stelzriede, when Mrs. Frances Matthews was arrested early in 1921 on a charge of grand larceny. Following the arrest, jewelry worth thousands of dollars was recovered from the prisoner's home and much of it was identified by persons who had previously reported losses to the police.

Following a trial which resulted in Mrs. Matthews being found guilty, some property claimed both by Mrs. Matthews as her personal belongings, and by others as articles stolen from them, remained in the hands of the police. Among the property thus retained were the earrings claimed by Mrs. Millen as stolen from her, and also by Mrs. Matthews, who told the police that she purchased them in Germany early in 1906.

On March 29 Mrs. Matthews, who is now serving a term in San Quentin penitentiary, filed a claim and delivery action through Attorney William F. Redmond, asking that the jewelry held by the police be turned over to her. In the action the Chief of Police and Mrs. Millen are named. An answer to the action was filed by Deputy City Attorney Sterry in which it was stated that the Chief of Police made no claim on the property in question and would turn the same over to the court when ownership was established.

The earrings were first missed from the police safe last Sunday afternoon when Police Detective Sergeant Stelzriede with Mrs. Millen went to the property clerk's office to attempt an identification of the jewelry. The package was taken from the safe and opened in the presence of a number of police officers. All of the jewelry which had been placed in the package by Detective Shy was accounted for with the exception of the earrings.

The Carroll Amusement Company yesterday sued the Aetna Insurance Company of Hartford for $5000, the amount of a policy covering loss on the baseball grand stand at 2716 Long Beach avenue, which was destroyed by fire some time ago. CHOIR SINGER IS DEAD OF WOUNDS

SEATTLE GIRL WHO FIRED BULLET INTO BREAST SUCCUMBS

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SEATTLE, April 10.—Miss Bertha Brackett, 25 years old, choir singer, who shot herself during services at the First Baptist Church here last night, died this morning. A nervous breakdown, superinduced by fear of the recurrence of a mental trouble which afflicted her twelve years ago, was believed by members of the family to have caused Miss Brackett to commit suicide.

Miss Brackett was the daughter of Alfred H. Brackett, vice-president of a large dye works here. For the last several years she had taught in schools of Seattle and other Northwest cities, and from 1912 to 1916 attended the University of Washington, where she was known as one of the most popular students. Her father and mother were prostrated today.

The shooting came with dramatic suddeness just after the Rev. Ambrose M. Bailey, pastor, concluded reading of his text, from the fifth chapter of John: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live."

There was a muffled report in the choir loft, and Miss Brackett fell. She was carried to an anteroom and the pastor, believing her to be only slightly injured, continued the services.

"I'm all right; it was the thing to do," she told those who were assisting her.

JOHN RICHARDS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

JUNEAU (Alaska) April 10.—John Richards, superintendent of the Alaska Gold Mine and one of the best-known mining men in Alaska, died here today of heart disease. He was connected with the Treadwell Alaska, Juneau and other mines for more than a quarter of a century. He was a former president of the Alaska Society of Mining Engineers and was prominent in Masonic circles here. He was a native of England and was 47 years of age.

Will Maintain Wage Schedule Now in Effect

At a gathering of Barker Brothers' employees in Trinity Auditorium last evening, C. H. Barker, vice-president of the firm, announced that the firm proposed to maintain present wage standards, even though there was a disposition in some quarters to bring salaries down in line with generally decreasing prices. Mr. Barker stated that it was the firm's desire to share with its employees the business success of the store, and it was also the wish to attract the very best talent in the various home-furnishing activities.

The occasion was one of the firm's periodical "get together" meetings, and was attended by all employees of the organization. The evening's program consisted of an elaborate entertainment, being opened by an old-fashioned minstrel show, followed by vaudeville and concert, every number of which was given by Barker Brothers' employees.

TAKES NO CHANCES ON FUTURE HUSBAND

CANADIAN GIRL WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT STATUS OF MAN HERE

Love may be blind, but in the case of Miss Adelaide Lambert of Hamilton, Ont., Can., it has at least one eye open. County Clerk Lampton yesterday received a letter from Miss Lambert, who apparently, is interested in Horace William Greenfield. He has satisfied her that there was a final divorce in the suit brought by Anna Greenfield, his former wife, but in her note to Mr. Lampton this is what Adelaide wants to know:

What was charged in the divorce suit brought by the wife?

Is he still paying $15 a month for the support of the two minor children?

How many children are there?

"He tells me," she wrote, "he does not have to pay for the children as some one has adopted them."

Schuyler Cole, chief clerk of the civil department, enlightened Miss Lambert at least in one particular. He wrote her that Mr. Greenfield is not relieved from the $15 a month for the support of the children, as they still are minors. Desertion and nonsupport were charged in the divorce complaint. The final decree of divorce was entered Oct. 14, 1918.

EMBEZZLER SUSPECT FACES SECOND TRIAL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

Miller is accused of embezzlement, it being asserted that while he was a book-keeper for a local bank his accounts proved $2000 short, the first trial resulted in a mistrial. The jury being unable to agree. Miller was arrested in Beaumont, Tex., after he fled from El Centro and had been missing several months.
